

Medical Alumni News

By Ida Lucille Wallace

DR. LEWIS L. REESE, who comes to Oklahoma from Berkeley, California, has been appointed medical director and assistant superintendent of the University and Crippled Children's Hospitals at Oklahoma City. Dr. Reese succeeds Dr. E. T. Olsen, who retired because of reaching the 65-year age limit. The new medical director is a graduate of the Boston University School of Medicine and has served as an executive of the Boston City Hospital. Dr. Robert U. Patterson, dean of the University Medical School, is general superintendent of the two hospitals associated with the Medical School.
