tend will want to renew PERSONAL acquaintances and not hear a lot of gab that means nothing when in the long last it is boiled down—nothing they can take home with them, like they can take home the visit they have just had with an old classmate. There are doubtless those, however, who prefer the jaw-jaw of would-be orators with their fuzzy, bearded stories of the vintage of long ago; after all, "every fellow to his taste" and there should be some of both and time for both. But since you asked for it, the above are my reactions. Even Reunion meetings can sometimes be pretty deadly, especially when the time element is important, when grads have returned to "see the boys and girls," then have a lot of blah-blah poked at them at some sort of so-called "banquet" (what a misnomer!)

To the Alumni Secretary:

I was very sorry that I did not get the information as to your meeting of the 20th in time to advise you the reason that it would be impossible for me to attend, as I regret very much that it was necessary for me to miss it.

However, the circumstances are that I have been confined to my room here in the hotel for nearly two weeks with an attack of pneumonia and flu which forced me to miss the Board Meeting on the 12th as well as your meeting on the 20th.

I am sure, however, that you had a nice meeting and the first time I am through Norman, I will give you a ring.

To the Alumni Secretary:

Would you please change my address on your mailing list for the Sooner Magazine. My address as it is now is Paragould, Arkansas. Would you please change it to 1812 R Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. I have a secretarial position in Washington.

Congratulations on the magazine. It gets better every month.

JANE ADAMS, '39fa

To the Alumni Secretary:

After I have had a little time to think it over I still say that the conference held Tuesday was one of the most remarkable things I have ever seen. Why something like this has not been done years ago I cannot understand. It was mighty (PLEASE TURN TO PAGE 29)
