

Medical Alumni

By IDA LUCILLE WALLACE

DR. LOUIS J. KENNEDY, '36med, of Purcell has been appointed chief surgeon at the Western Oklahoma Charity Hospital at Clinton by the State Board of Affairs. Dr. Kennedy served four years as resident surgeon at the City Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri, and recently has been company doctor for a contractor working on the Fort Supply Dam. He succeeds Dr. Russell W. Lewis, '32 med, who resigned to engage in private practice at Granite. Dr. Lewis held that hospital position for the last few years.

► Dr. Charles E. Leonard, '32med, and Mrs. Leonard, of Chicago have announced the birth of a son September 21. The Leonards will return to Oklahoma City next June after Dr. Leonard completes a year's study of psychiatry in Chicago.

► Dr. Rheba Huff, '38med, who is serving as resident in medicine and surgery at the Iowa Lutheran Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, has spent a vacation recently visiting her parents in Norman and friends in Oklahoma City.

► Dr. Alice Cooper, '38med, is now serving a six months' residency in contagious diseases of children at the New York Contagious Hospital in New York City.

► Eight additional counties in Oklahoma had health departments operating by September 1, bringing the total in the state to thirty-six, according to Dr. G. F. Mathews, '25med, state commissioner of public health. All of these eight new units are in charge of graduates of the University of Oklahoma School of Medicine.

Roger Mills County has joined Ellis County in organizing a new unit, which is in charge of Dr. Lowell L. Stokes, '36 med. Dr. J. C. Kennedy, '29med, is medical director of the new unit created by Coal and Atoka Counties. Dr. Roy Anderson, '39med, is director of the Logan County unit. Dr. R. H. Deuwall, '38 med, is director of the Bryan County unit and Dr. W. L. Pickhardt, '37med, the Creek County unit.

Several health units have appointed new directors to replace directors who have left for a year's duty with the National Guard. Those leaving for duty include Dr. Glenn W. McDonald, '34med, of Ada, Dr. Orville Tackett, '39med, of Purcell, and Dr. James O. Hood, '31med, of Norman. Dr. W. R. Chatwood, '37med, has become director of the unit at Ada.

► Dr. John A. Cunningham, '36med, and Miss Mary Margaret Whitehurst of Oklahoma City were to be married in October. Dr. Cunningham is resident physician at Polyclinic Hospital in Oklahoma City.

► Dr. Joseph Castronovo, '29med, who is engaged in general practice at Providence, Rhode Island, recently visited the School of Medicine for the first time in several years.

► Dr. Richard D. Roys, '39med, and Mrs. Ruth Shannon Roys, '36ba, are now permanently located in Seattle, Washington, where Dr. Roys is engaged in private practice. They have a son one year old.

► Dr. R. C. Mills, '28med, has been appointed, along with Dr. E. R. Lewis, to direct the City Health Department of Oklahoma City for a year during the absence of Dr. W. H. Miles at National Guard Camp. Both doctors will serve on a part-time basis.

► LeRoy W. Earley, '36ba, '38bs.med, is studying medicine this year at the University of Chicago on a special scholarship. He has studied two years at Oxford University in England as a Rhodes scholar.

► Miss Betty Price of Roseburg, Oregon, and Dr. Victor Mills, '38med, were married in July at Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Mills attended the University of Oregon and is a graduate of the Nurses' Training School of the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland and Dr. Mills served his internship and six months as resident surgeon of the Good Samaritan Hospital. The couple are at home at The Dalles, Oregon.

► Dr. William Loy, '37med, of Ardmore, director of the Public Health Unit for Carter County, went to Harvard University in September for postgraduate work in medicine.

► Dr. H. A. Shoemaker, assistant dean and professor of pharmacology in the School of Medicine, was main speaker on the program of a dinner meeting of the Oklahoma City branch of the Oklahoma State Society of Medical Technologists last month.

► Dr. Francis C. Lawler, assistant professor of bacteriology, went to Detroit last month to attend the meeting of the American Public Health Association.

▲ ▲ ▲

READY-WARD: Miss Wilma Jean Ready, '40, and Jack Ward, both of Hollis, were married September 6 in the Alpha Xi Delta House at Norman. The couple will live at Hollis where Mr. Ward, a graduate of Oklahoma A. and M. College, is assistant county supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

Jessie Lee Row, '40ed, has been appointed head of the commercial department in Cherokee High School.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6
in Bizzell Memorial Library.