The Life Underwriter ---Your Friend

The first impulse, often, when a life insurance underwriter calls, is to show him little courtesy—but pause a while and consider. Perhaps no one is better equipped than he to give you practical suggestions for increasing and conserving your estate and for providing for your family's welfare.

Life underwriting has become a profession for which men and women aspiring to enter it are carefully educated and prepared. The experienced underwriters of well-established companies are well versed in business matters and fully qualified to advise regarding the best methods of estate conservation.

We believe in life insurance, for it is one of the best and easiest ways of replacing earning power, creating an estate and providing funds to liquidate taxes and debts.

O. U. Wedgwood Plates Have Arrived

First Shipment Sold Out . . . Others on the Way

The first shipment of University of Oklahoma Commemorative Plates made by the Wedgwood Company, of England, has arrived in Oklahoma. Advance orders were sufficient to exhaust the entire first shipment.

However, another shipment of 168 plates is due to arrive in Oklahoma soon, according to best information available from the importers. Shipments are on an irregular schedule, due to war conditions, but so far there has been so serious disruption of shipping between England and New York. The second shipment of O.U. plates will be exactly like the first shipment—all are "First Edition" plates with a special back stamp that will not appear on later editions. The plates are 10½ inches in diameter, framed by Wedgwood's time-honored "Patrician" border, with an original drawing of the University Administration Building in the center of Staffordshire red. One of the plates may be examined at the Mart on the ground floor of the Union Building on the University campus.

Orders accepted, subject to prior sale, at $2.00 each, plus 2% state sales tax. Shipped Express Collect.

Additional orders for the plates may be sent to the Alumni Office at the University. A deposit of 50 cents per plate is required with each order, the balance to be paid upon delivery of the plates.
