OUR OWN O.U. ROLL CALL

Like several other members of our organization, Carleton Wright acquired a liking for, and had experience in the banking business long before he finished his education.

As a student for two years in Northeast Oklahoma Junior College at Miami, he put in his spare time working for the First National Bank in Miami as bookkeeper and teller. In January, 1927, Carleton enrolled in the School of Business at Oklahoma University and continued his banking activity by working in the Security National Bank of Norman as a bookkeeper. His courses in the School of Business were selected with a view to a career in banking. After graduation, Carleton came to the First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City as a clerk in the Trust Department. He has progressed in that department to the position he now occupies as assistant trust officer.

At the university, Carleton was a member of the Acacia fraternity. He has kept up his interest in fraternity affairs and is a director of the Alumni Association. He is also active in civic clubs, being treasurer of the Young Men's Club of Oklahoma City, secretary of the Young Men's Dinner Club, a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and third vice president of the Oklahoma Trust Companies Association. He is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Crown Heights Methodist Church.

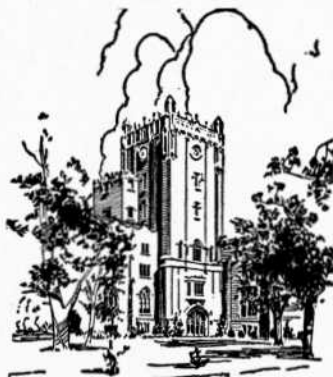

In 1932, Carleton married Genevieve Hutchison of Tulsa (B.F.A.—O.U. '32). They have two children, Sandra Louise, age 2½ and Bradley Lewis, age 5 months.

Carleton reminds his O.U. friends that the Trust Department is on the north side of the third floor of the First National Building, and he hopes they will be sure to come in and see him.

Plane Crash Fatal

Lt. James Everett Baggett, Jr., '39ba, 22-year-old flier, was killed in an airplane crash July 16 after his plane struck a power line while gliding for a forced landing near Ocean Springs, Mississippi.

Parents of Lieutenant Baggett, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baggett, Oklahoma City, were on a vacation in the eastern states when his death occurred. In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers.

Lieutenant Baggett was stationed with the 153rd Observation Squadron at Meridian, Mississippi. Squadron officials said his plane apparently developed motor trouble during a routine flight. After his graduation from the University, Lieutenant Baggett was graduated from the air school at Kelly Field, Texas.
