IT'S little more than a month until Coach Snorter Luster's alert and tricky football team opens the 1941 season against the Oklahoma Aggies in Memorial Stadium. Luster and his all-alumni staff have promised the razzle dazzle, deceptive, fast moving kind of football that Sooner fans like to watch. Win or lose, there will be six exciting gridiron battles on the Sooner home schedule this fall, and you'll want to see every one of them.

Season ticket for the six home games is $10. This year, for the first time, every season ticket holder will get coupons in his ticket book entitling him to receive a free copy of the official program at each game.

The six home games are with the Oklahoma Aggies, Sooner Freshmen, Santa Clara, Kansas, Iowa State and Marquette. The first game is September 27. And the time is growing short to get a good choice of seats in Memorial Stadium. Mail your season ticket order now to avoid disappointment in the kind of seats you get.
