E. DeGolyer, '11geol, consulting geologist at Dallas, Texas and a nationally known authority on oil resources, was a speaker at the meeting of the National Petroleum Association held in late April at Cleveland, Ohio. Oil requirements for the army and navy are now about ten times as great as when the United States entered the World War, Mr. DeGolyer declared. Visible reserves, however, are now estimated at twenty billion barrels as compared to six billion in 1917. Present refinery production could be stepped up by 25 percent by opening closed plants, he said.

Oklahomans were interested in a recent article in Time Magazine about Luis Munoz Marin, political leader in Puerto Rico. Mrs. Marin is the former Muna Lee, '14, widely known among Sooners as a poet and writer. Mr. Marin within the last few years organized a new political party, defeated a coalition of old leaders, and became president of the senate.

Capt. Frank Leroy Miller, '14pharm, of the Medical Detachment, 158th Field Artillery, Camp Barkeley, Texas, has been promoted from the rank of captain to that of major.

H. T. Price, '21ba, wrote the alumni office his regrets over not being able to attend the 20-year reunion of his class. Mr. Price has been principal of a school in Bisbee, Arizona, for the last fourteen years "Although I should have liked very much to return to O.U. for summer work which I have had to do, the distance was so great that with the exception of one short summer term which I did spend in O.U., my work has been in the University of Arizona," he wrote. He received a master's degree there in 1929. "It is with regret that I find it

This Sooner alumnus and his daughter will both receive degrees from the College of Business Administration at Commencement Exercises June 9. They are Ralph V. Miller, '24bus, head of the commercial department and boys' counselor at Central High School, Oklahoma City, who will receive a master's degree in business administration, and daughter Mary Elaine, who will receive a bachelor's degree in the same professional field impossible to be in attendance at the reunion. But my thoughts will be with the gang and my very best wishes are that this reunion will be the very best of the lot. Further, I trust that old O.U. will receive direct benefit as I know all returning alumni will be benefitted by the return."

Rose Leske, '21ba, has been re-elected president of the Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae Alliance in Norman for the coming year.

Mrs. Kent C. Phipps (Frances Clay, '21) wrote the Alumni Office that she would not be able to attend the twenty-year reunion of her class, but sent her greetings. Mrs. Phipps is a homemaker in Mangum, where her husband is owner-manager of the Greer County Abstract Company. Mr. Phipps graduated from the O.U. Law School in 1933 and was elected to Order of the Coif. Mr. and Mrs. Phipps have two children, Kent Clay Phipps, 11 years old, and Sharon Phipps, 5.

Don L. Dickason, '29law, led a successful fight against abandonment of the direct primary system in New Mexico during the recent session of the New Mexico legislature. He is a member of the New Mexico State Senate. Newspapers generally supported him in the fight and one commented editorially that the state might "draft him for United States senator."

Kermit J. Hardwick, '29bs, is store manager in the John A. Brown store in Oklahoma City.

Everett F. Drumright, '29bus, has been promoted from class seven to class six in the foreign service department of the federal government. He is now second secretary in the American embassy in Chungking, China.

Vivian Mattox, '29ba, is head of the mathematics department at El Reno High School.

Where's the Best Seat in the O. U. Stadium?

Some fans like to sit up high and get a birds-eye view. Some like to sit as close to the sidelines as possible. Some even like to sit toward the ends for a closeup of goal line action.

But whatever your choice is, right now is the time to be telling the Sooner athletic office about it. O.U. alumni are being given a chance to order season football tickets and take their choice of seat locations before the general sale to the public opens. Order NOW!

OUR OWN O.U. ROLL CALL

John C. Harrington
(Ex '24)

The name of "Bus" Harrington is brilliantly written in the history of tennis at O.U., for after three years as a leading member of the O.U. tennis team, he was captain of the 1924 team, which won the Missouri Valley Championship.

Coming to O.U. from Central High School in Oklahoma City, Bus enrolled in the School of Business in 1920. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta, and of the honorary fraternities Mystic Key and Tri-Chi.

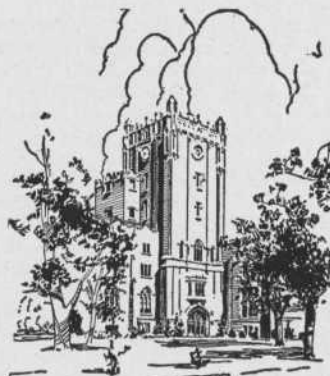

In 1924, he went to work for the Security National Bank. At the time the Security National was merged with the First National Bank and Trust Company, in 1930, Bus was Assistant Cashier. In 1939, he was elected Assistant Vice President, the office he now holds—with supervision of the personal loan, car note and premium finance departments.

The Harrington family is strictly an O.U. family, Mrs. Harrington being the former Catherine Dean of Guthrie, a Theta at O.U. They have three children; two girls, Margot, age 14, Deane, age eight; and one boy, John, Jr., age 11.

Bus has been active in civic affairs, being vice president of the Last Frontier Council, Boy Scouts of America, and a member of the executive committee. He is president of the Oklahoma City Tennis Club, a member of the Men's Dinner Club of Oklahoma City, and chairman of the committee on consumers' credit of the Oklahoma Bankers' Association. He has continued his interest in fraternity affairs and is now treasurer of the Phi Delta Theta Building Association.

When you come into the bank, just stop at the northwest corner of the lobby floor and there you will find Bus, with a friendly greeting.

Correspondence Study Lauded

Citizens of Oklahoma were urged to make wider use of the correspondence courses offered by the University in an editorial published by the Oklahoma City Times recently. Under the caption "There Is Room for 5,000 More," the Times stated editorially:

The report of the director of the extension courses offered by the University of Oklahoma shows 6,485 persons have been enrolled in the classes conducted by correspondence in the last year.

It is good to see the study-at-home work on the increase. However, there is room for 5,000 more persons to participate in these courses. You may study the subjects you wish to learn or review the subjects you missed during school days. Those with trained hands and minds are getting and holding the jobs nowadays.
