OUR OWN O.U. ROLL CALL

Grover D. Strother

(Class of 1919)

Grover entered O. U. with the class of '14, but the first World War interrupted his college career. He saw 14 months' over-seas service as Master Sergeant of Medical Corps attached to the 25th Balloon Company. After the Armistice he took a six months' course at the University of Bordeaux.

Married Alice Truesdell, graduate of Kingfisher College, in 1919. Two children; Dudley, freshman engineer at O. U., pledge to S.A.E., and Jane, O. U. junior, member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Grover has been active in alumni fraternity work, and is now Province President of S.A.E. He started with the bank in 1920, and is now manager of the Safe Deposit department, and in charge of all vaults. He is treasurer and a director of the Civitan Club of Oklahoma City, and past president of the Oklahoma Safe Deposit Association. Grover is justly proud of our Safe Deposit department—one of the most beautiful and best equipped in the United States. He cordially invites his classmates and alumni friends to drop in and let him take them on a tour of inspection.
