BECAUSE OF illness, Dr. Tom Lowry, '16 med, new dean of the University School of Medicine, was unable last month to assume duties. Until his recovery Dr. Harold Shoemaker, assistant dean and professor of pharmacology, was to serve as acting dean. Dr. Lowry's appointment, effective November 15, will continue to July 1, 1943.

Dr. J. William Finch, '31med, Hobart, was elected president of the Alumni Association of the University School of Medicine at the annual meeting of the Association held October 28 in Oklahoma City.

Other officers elected are Dr. Ennis Gullatt, '32med, Ada, vice president, and Dr. Melvin C. Kimball, '31med, Battlesville, secretary and treasurer.

A practicing physician and surgeon at Hobart since 1936, Dr. Finch served his internship at the Vancouver General Hospital, Vancouver, British Columbia, and took a post-graduate course in pediatrics in Washington University, St. Louis. Last spring he was elected a fellow of the American College of Physicians and inducted into the College at its annual meeting.
