
Medical School

By ROBERTA HUFF

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS in the School of Medicine whose services will commence on September 1, 1942, are Dr. Alton C. Kurtz, assistant professor of biochemistry, succeeding Dr. I. S. Danielson, who resigned to join the Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, New York; and Dr. O. Boyd Houchin, instructor in pharmacology, succeeding Dr. Irwin S. Winter, who is now employed by the American Medical Association.

Alumni

Miss Eugenia Davis and Dr. William L. Taylor, '10med, both of Holdenville, were married June 28 in Gainesville, Texas. Mrs. Taylor owns the Physicians and Surgeons Hospital in Holdenville. She owned and operated a hospital at Ada for many years and until recently managed one at Duncan. Dr. Taylor, pioneer Hughes county physician, is owner and manager of the Taylor Clinic. He is serving his fourteenth year as president of the Hughes County Medical Society.

Miss Nelly Semon, Honolulu, T. H., and Lt. George E. Meador, '40med, Honolulu, were married June 27. Mrs. Meador is an X-ray technician at a clinic in Honolulu where Lieutenant Meador is on active duty with the Navy Medical Corps.

Miss Dorris Weathers Moore, Stillwater, and Lt. Lloyd Wilson Taylor, '41med, Omaha, Nebraska, were married July 4 in Omaha. Mrs. Taylor formerly attended Oklahoma A. and M. College at Stillwater, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. At present she is employed in an office of the college. Lieutenant Taylor completed his internship at the Emergency Hospital in Washington, D. C. The couple will make their home in San Francisco while Lieutenant Taylor is stationed at Fort Mason.

Miss Pauline Hunt, Muskogee, and Capt. Claude M. Bloss, Jr., '37med, Okemah, were married July 15. The bride graduated from Oklahoma A. and M. College where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. For the last three years she has taught in Ponca City High School. Captain Bloss served his internship at Denver General Hospital in Colorado and practiced medicine for three years before going into active service. The couple will make their home in Alexandria, Louisiana, while he is stationed at Camp Livingston with the Army Medical Corps.

Miss Ava Lee Stallard, Miles City, Montana, and Dr. Paul Kernek, '39med, Holdenville, were married July 7 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. During the last year, the bride was surgical nurse at St. Anthony Hospital in Oklahoma City. She attended college and took nurses training in Miles City. Dr. Kernek took his internship at New Orleans Charity Hospital in Louisiana and served one year as orthopedic surgeon on the St. Anthony Hospital staff. He is now associated with the Pryor-Johnston-Kernek Hospital and Clinic in Holdenville where the couple have established a home.

Dr. Alice Cooper Ferdinand, '38med, who had planned to start practice in Peoria, Illinois, in October, 1942, has announced that she will enter a pediatric clinic in Houston, Texas, on that date.

Dr. L. Duncan Threlkeld, '40med, has just completed a two-year internship at Syracuse University Hospitals. He reported August 6 as first lieutenant in the Medical Corps at Baltimore, Maryland.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .0686 in Bizzell
Memorial Library.