

The First Fifty Years are the Liveliest!

Read . . .

Roy Gittinger's New Book

The University of Oklahoma 1892-1942

This is the first and official history of the University by one of its graduates, who this year completes a full forty years on its faculty.

A profusely illustrated, beautifully made, mellow and amusing book that should be in the library of every graduate. It is fifty yearbooks condensed into one—and yet it is really much more; it is a book to read for the story of the rise of a great university from its modest beginnings during territorial days, until the Second World War. It is part of the literature of Oklahoma.
