The University's Own Story... A Book for Its 50th Anniversary

Dean Roy Gittinger's new book

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA A History of Fifty Years

is the first and the official history of the University, to be issued appropriately on September 15, 1942, the semi-centennial date of the University's founding. It is a book that is mellow and amusing—filled with anecdote and human interest. This is the story of a great University, whose career parallels the rise of the state itself from territorial days to the Second World War. It is a distinct contribution to the literature of Oklahoma.

Printed in the University of Oklahoma Press's best tradition of fine book-making, it is lavishly illustrated—and beautifully decorated with colored initials and title page. This is a book for every University of Oklahoma graduate—a real collector's item for a permanent bookshelf.

Dean Gittinger ('02 A & S), professor of history and dean of admission, has been on the faculty for a full forty years. Few, either in enterprise or in years of service, have contributed more to the University's growth and development; fewer still have had his opportunity to experience the University's evolution or to know more of its graduates.

All orders placed through the Sooner Magazine will be personally autographed by the author. Use the convenient order form. The book is available in two formats—the Regular Edition, bound in cloth, at $2.50 a copy; and a Limited Edition, in de luxe binding, at $5.00 a copy. Order now and delivery will be made when the book is published—September 15.

Roy Gittinger's THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA will be shipped postpaid anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, or to the armed forces at home or abroad, when remittance accompanies the order.
