

Medical School

By ROBERTA HUFF

Medical Faculty News

Members of the faculty attending the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in Dallas, Texas, December 29 to January 3 were: Dr. H. A. Shoemaker, Dr. Mark L. Everett, Dr. J. M. Thuringer, Dr. Donald B. McMullen, Miss Elizabeth Hall, and Miss Ruby Wortham.

Dr. Lois Lyon Wells, assistant anesthetist at the University Hospital, has been appointed an associate in the Department of Anesthesia of the University of Oklahoma Medical School.

Dr. Richard M. Burke, superintendent of Western Oklahoma Tuberculosis Sanatorium, visiting lecturer in medicine, has been elected a fellow in the American College of Physicians.

Louis E. Diamond, research associate in the Department of Biochemistry, has been appointed an instructor in that department.

Dr. John M. Parrish, Jr., until the first of the year a resident in obstetrics and gynecology at the University Hospital, has been appointed to the obstetrical service of the Outpatient Department of the hospital. Dr. Parrish has entered the practice of medicine in Oklahoma City with Dr. Tom Lowry, '16med, with offices in the Osler Building.

Medical Alumni News

Dr. James Richard Raines, '35med, is serving as resident in radiology at the Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Wallace B. Hamby, '28med, has been appointed professor of neurological surgery at the University of Buffalo, New York. He has practiced in Buffalo since 1934, specializing in neurosurgery.

Rugie R. Coates, '37med, first lieutenant, M. C. R., U. S. Army, on duty at the Station Hospital, Fort Sill, and Mrs. Coates announce the birth of their second daughter, Mardys Ann, January 6.

Dr. J. L. Dixon, '40med, was a visitor at the Medical School January 5.

Dr. Byron Aycock, '40med, and Miss Doris Glenn Hanna, Lawton, were married January 1. Dr. and Mrs. Aycock will establish a home in Oklahoma City.

Dr. Forest R. Brown, '36med, is permanently located at the Gorgas Hospital, Ancon, Panama Canal Zone. Dr. Brown has been at the Gorgas Hospital since his internship there in 1936-37.

George S. Bozalis, '35med, in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army, is on duty in the 126th General Hospital at Camp Forrest, Shelbyville, Tennessee.

John E. Miller, '39med, captain M. C., U. S. Army, is the commanding officer of the Station Hospital, U. S. Troops, Nome, Alaska.

Howell E. Wiggins, '36med, lieutenant J. G., M. C., U. S. Navy, is on duty at the U. S. Naval Dispensary Section Base, Treasure Island, San Francisco. Lieutenant and Mrs. Wiggins announce the birth of a son, Howell Ernest Wiggins, Jr., at Peralta Hospital, Oakland, California, on December 15.

Miss Alice Bernice Savage, '40nurse, and Dr. J. Andrew Graham, Oklahoma City, were married November 30 in the home of the bride's parents in Wister. Dr. Graham, formerly of Gibson, Iowa, will complete his internship at University Hospital, Oklahoma City, in June.

Miss Martha Ellen Ryland, formerly of Crescent, and Dr. Walter Scott Hendren, Jr., '41med, were married November 10 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Hendren has been enrolled in nurses' training school in Oklahoma City. Dr. Hendren is an interne at Baltimore City Hospital in Baltimore, where the couple are at home.

Russell F. Bonham, '26med, is a physician and anaesthetician with offices in the Medical Arts Building in Houston, Texas.

John R. Reid, '31med, is a physician and surgeon at Altus.

Lt. R. H. Hulen, '09med, has opened an office at Moore's Drug Store in Ringling.

Word has been received that Capt. Clyde V. Kern, '38med, became chief of staff of the Army hospital at Fort Stotsenburg in the Philippine Islands shortly before the Japanese invasion.

Dr. S. A. Lang, '32med, physician and surgeon, has been appointed a member of the school board at Nowata, to fill an unexpired term.

Dr. Odis O. Cook, '31med, Anadarko, has begun practice in Madill where he is part owner of the Madill Hospital and Clinic.

Capt. James H. Hammond, '37med, was on duty as flight surgeon with an airplane squadron at Fort Walton, Florida, in early January, but expected to be transferred soon. Mrs. Hammond (Dorothy Hume, '34ba) was with him at Fort Walton.

Dr. F. C. Buffington, '35med, Norman, has been elected president of the Cleveland County Medical Society and one of the two delegates to the state convention of the Oklahoma Medical Society.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.