

Faculty

THEODORE H. SMITH, professor of marketing, has been named special assistant to the board of the Federal Reserve System in Washington, D.C. He spent several weeks in Washington this spring making special studies and was offered this position as a result of his work then. In his new position he will make special studies dealing with consumer credit problems.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.

▶ Arthur B. Adams, dean of the College of Business Administration, was elected president of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business at the annual meeting in Chicago last April. Fifty-two college schools of business belong to the Association, which is a standardizing agency. Prior to his election as president, Mr. Adams served two terms as a member of the executive council and one term as vice president.

▶ C. G. Lalicker, '30geol, '32ms, associate professor of geology, has been granted a leave of absence to do geological research on salt dome structures in Texas. Mr. Lalicker joined the University faculty in 1938.

▶ Henry L. Kamphoefner, acting director of the School of Architecture, had an article on the construction and use of band shells in a recent issue of the Music Educators Journal.

▶ Ralph Bienfang, professor of pharmacy, has been named public relations director for pharmacists in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana.

▶ Dorothy F. Cram, '32ba, instructor in social work, has accepted a temporary position with the War Relocation Board in Hunt, Idaho, where she will be in charge of medical social service work at the camp for Japanese internees there.

▶ President Joseph A. Brandt, '21ba, has been re-elected for a three-year term as a member of the board of trustees of the Foundation for the Advancement of Social Sciences.

▶ Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Dorine Hawkins, Newcastle, Oklahoma, to Ensign Vernon Musselman, '39m.ed, former assistant professor of commercial education. The wedding was set for June 12 in Los Angeles. The bride-elect, a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee, has been employed for some time as secretary at the First Baptist Church in Norman. The couple will live in Los Angeles, where Ensign Musselman is on duty with the Naval Reserve.

▶ "Infrared Absorption Spectra of Nine A.P.I. Hydrocarbons," a paper by J. Rud

DEAN A. B. ADAMS

Nielsen, professor of theoretical physics, was recently printed for restricted distribution by the American Petroleum Institute. Publication of the article will not take place until after the war.

▶ Kester Svendsen, assistant professor of English, is the author of an article, "Milton and Medical Lore," which appears in a recent issue of the Bulletin of the History of Medicine.

▶ J. L. Lindsey, University comptroller, has been appointed a member of the contract-making board for the Army in organizing the specialized training program in the nation's colleges and universities. He will act as advisor and consultant in financial matters for the program.

▶ Wilbur F. Cloud, '25ba, '26ms, professor of petroleum engineering, has been named chairman of the committee on petroleum courses in the education division of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

▶ Virginia Morris, who joined the faculty last fall as instructor in physical education for women, has been assigned to foreign duty with the Red Cross and was training in Washington, D. C. before sailing. Miss Morris taught at Northeastern State College at Tahlequah before coming to the University.

▶ Elbert K. Fretwell, who taught special classes during several recent summer school sessions, has been named chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America. Professor of education at Columbia University, Mr. Fretwell will take over his new position in June.