

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA
DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

OUs Baseball Coach
JACK BAER

JACK BAER

Baer is 31 years old. As property of the Boston Red Sox, he played professionally with Clarksdale, Miss., of the South Atlantic league, Scranton, Pa., of the Eastern league and with Little Rock of the Southern Association. As property of the Boston Braves, he played professionally with Hartford of the Eastern league and was to report at the Braves spring training in 1941 when he accepted the job as Oklahoma's assistant coach and in 1942 as Oklahoma's head coach.

Baer played football, basketball, baseball and even ran legs on the sprint and sprint medley relay teams at Shawnee, Okla., high school 1931-34. At Oklahoma he was all-Big Six tailback on Tom Stidham's Sooner football team of 1937 and played outfield and short-stop three years with the Sooner baseball team coached by L. E. "Jap" Haskell, now Oklahoma athletic director. He lacked only four games lettering with Coach Hugh McDermott's Sooner basketball team of 1936.

Enlisting in the Navy in 1942, Baer was indoctrinated in Chapel Hill, N. C., and prior to his discharge was assigned to Del Monte Pre-Flight, Bunker Hill, Ind. NAS, Gainsville, N. C. NATTC and Jacksonville, Fla. NAS. He is married, has a six-year-old daughter.

The Remaining Schedule

(Spring of '46)

- * April 12, 13 Iowa State at Norman.
- * April 17, 18 Kansas State at Manhattan.
- * April 19, 20 Nebraska at Lincoln.
- * April 22, 23 Kansas at Lawrence.
- April 25 Oklahoma Aggies at Norman.
- April 26 Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater.
- April 27 Southwestern Tech at Weatherford.
- April 29 Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater.
- April 30 Southwestern Tech at Norman.
- May 1 Oklahoma Aggies at Norman.

* Big Six Conference games.

Faculty

► Sgt. Lloyd Daly, assistant professor of classical languages, is now stationed with the Ministerial Collection Center at Furstenhagen, Germany, where documents have been collected to be examined.

► Charles Elson, formerly on the drama faculty at the University, is now assistant to Donald Oenslager, stage designer, in New York, New York. They have recently designed the sets for Pygmalion and Born Yesterday, and they are now doing the stage sets for ten Broadway productions. Mr. Elson formerly taught at Hunter College and Finch Junior College.

► Dr. Francis R. Hunter, Norman, has returned to his position as assistant professor of animal biology after serving three years in the Army Air Forces. Dr. Hunter, who served as an aviation physiologist, was stationed for a year in the Southwest Pacific.

► Maj. E. A. Frederickson, Norman, has returned to his teaching duties in the department of geology.

► Mrs. Leonard Dotson, Norman, formerly an instructor in the Oklahoma City public school system, is now associated with the speech department at the University.

► Joe T. Williamson, former professor at the University, has become history and government professor at Oklahoma City University.

► Kenneth Baker Horning, Norman, has recently joined the department of business communication as assistant professor.

► Col. C. C. Bush, Jr., '32ma, Norman, has been on terminal leave and has recently returned to his duties in the history department.

► Dr. Arthur B. Adams, dean of the college of business administration, has had an article published in the February issue of the Business Education World. Dr. Adams' article is entitled "Business English in Business Training."

► Augustin L. Cosgrove, associate professor of business communication, edited the March issue of the Bulletin of the American Writing Association. Mr. Cosgrove returned to the University faculty recently from leave of absence for military service, having served with the Army in Europe. In 1945, he was a member of the faculty of Shrivenham American University in England.

► Stewart Harral, '36ma, Norman, director of the School of Journalism and press relations, is the author of Successful Letters for Churches, a public relations correspondence volume, which will be published by Abingdon-Cokesbury press, New York and Nashville.

► Dr. R. L. Huntington, director of the department of chemical engineering, attended the annual meeting of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers recently in Chicago, Illinois.

► Robert D. Corsaw, assistant professor of art on military leave of absence, will return to the campus next fall to organize and direct the ceramics school. He was a technical sergeant with the Third Army, and a veteran of five overseas campaigns. Mr. Corsaw has recently received his discharge.

► Dr. S. E. Torsten Lund, former associate professor of education at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, has assumed his new duties as professor of education in the University College of Education.

V.G. Wilhite Transferred to Berlin

Dr. V. G. Wilhite, '21ba, Norman, professor of economics on leave of absence, who is connected with the Army as a civilian on the Army education program, has been transferred from the American University at Frankfurt, Germany, to the American University at Berlin.

Dr. Wilhite taught at the American University at Shrivenham, England, and was transferred to the American University at Biarritz, France, before going to Frankfurt.