Glamour Expert Selects Sooner Yearbook Beauties

Eight University co-eds, selected by John R. Powers, New York glamour expert, for the Sooner Yearbook beauty section, recently were announced by Editor Everett Berry, business administration senior from Wynona.

The Sooner beauties are Doris Hutchison, Adrienne Smith, Aletha Dinger, and Betty Jean Thompson, of Oklahoma City; Mary LeFlore, Tulsa; Mary Allen Hess, Durant; Lu Anne Lancaster, Seminole, and Betty Lou Theck, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Miss LeFlore was chosen as No. One Sooner Yearbook beauty, Berry said.

Mr. Powers must prefer brunets from all appearances, for only one blonde, Mary Allen Hess, is to be found among the queens.

And here's how the Sooner beauties appear on paper:

Delta Delta Delta Doris Hutchison, junior in arts and sciences, has blue eyes, black hair and a neat five-foot three-inch figure weighing 108 pounds. A member of the 1946 Sooner Yearbook beauty section, she will pose for the Yearbook in an ensemble from Kerr's.

Adrienne Smith, freshman, brunet Pi Beta Phi, stands five-feet eight-inches tall with brown eyes and black feathercut to complete her qualifications. She will model for Balliet's in the Yearbook.

Betty Jean Thompson, freshman, tips the scales at 104 pounds and claims to have the smallest feet in Hester Hall. With brown hair and eyes and height five-feet three-inches, she will pose for Brown-Dunkin.

Aletha Dinger, freshman, five-feet one and one-half-inch Delta Gamma, has hazel eyes and light brown hair. Lee weighs 115 pounds and will be Halliburton's model.

Mary LeFlore, sophomore in fine arts, Kappa Alpha Theta, will be pictured in an outfit from Vandever's. She is five-feet six-inches and weighs 120 pounds with dark brown hair and eyes.

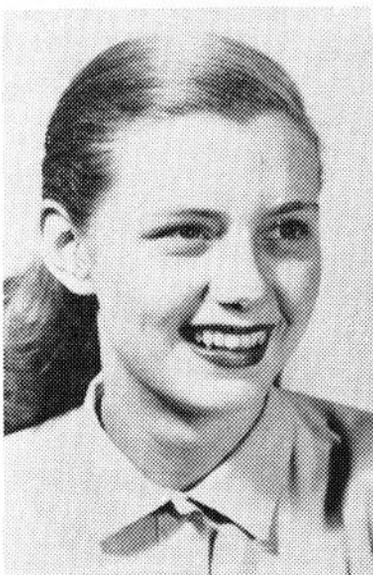

Blond Kappa Kappa Gamma Mary Allen Hess, junior in fine arts, has been selected by Anderson's to pose for the Yearbook. "Mal" has blue eyes, blond hair, and is five-feet seven-inches tall.

Burr's brunet model is Lu Anne Lancaster, sophomore in arts and sciences, Gamma Phi Beta. She lets dark hair, brown eyes, and a height of five-feet six-inches speak for itself.

Betty Lou Theck's five-feet five and one-half-inch figure and dark brown hair and eyes will be seen in an ensemble from Brown's. A senior in arts and sciences, she lives in Logan Hall and is the only out-of-state beauty queen.

Sooner beauties for 1946 were chosen by Crooner Bing Crosby. Winners included Sara Morrow, senior in arts and sciences, Pi Beta Phi, Tulsa; Carol Jane Wilson, junior in arts and sciences, Kappa Alpha Theta, Tulsa; Ann Gottlieb, '46ba, graduate student, Perry; Bobbie Jean Craig, sophomore in fine arts, Chi Omega, Frederick; Grayce Cowell, senior in fine arts, Delta Gamma, Ada; Doris Hutchison, junior in arts and sciences, Delta Delta Delta, Oklahoma City; Patty Hoover, sophomore in fine arts, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Elk City, and Minnie Kay Morse, Shamrock, Texas.
