

OKTs

April, 1948

The SOONER MAGAZINE

NEW NATIONAL CHIEF

B. H. Griffin Takes Over as Law Leaves For New York Post

Bernard H. Griffin, a pioneer in the development of American aviation, this week becomes Administrator of the Washington National Airport. He succeeds Henry F. Law, who has resigned to become general superintendent of the airports in the Metropolitan New York area, which have been brought under the jurisdiction of the Port of New York Authority.

Sanford Resigns to Become Texas Association Manager

Vernon F. Sanford, executive vice president of the Texas Association of...

FCC Chairman

Writer Is Jap Girls' He

Robert's Romantic Novel, Love Song... The author of the book is...

Congressman Receives Law Degree Before Colgate Talk

HAMILTON, N. Y. Feb. 24.—Rep. A. A. "Mike" Nowicki...

Glendale Man Is Vice-President of De Pauw Univ

Wm. H. Butterfield Will Assume New Duties Feb. 1

Dr. Copeland Named Director of J-School

Director of the J-School...

DeGoly Will Give Top Talk

Dr. Everett Lee DeGoly...

Moseley Gets High Award

Four More Plays by Lynn Riggs

Van Heflin, University Alumnus To Come 'Home' for Conference

'Oscar' Winner Will Return For Annual Career Meeting

Student Union Expansion Plan Gets Go Sign

Legal Okay Stamped On Million Dollar O.U. Project

Peyton Ford Now in Washington

Peyton Ford has left for Washington...

Cross, Cate Join Honorary Colonels

CHILMARK CITY, Mar. 25.—Lt. Gen. James E. Cross...