

23 which is the emperor's birthday and the date on which all schools close. Schools hold classes five days a week, and the days taught in a year closely approximate the American school year.

The oldest teacher to accept an Ethiopian assignment, R. M. McCool, 63 years of age, Norman, and the youngest teacher in the group, Eugene Parks, 23, pose with Perry Carmichael on the steps of the TWA Constellation which took them to Cairo, Egypt, from where they continued the journey via the Ethiopian Airlines to Addis Ababa.

There are 16 schools in Addis Ababa, a city of approximately 150,000. Ten of the schools take the student through the lower grades, varying from the third to the sixth grade. Four are elementary schools, with Thirteen school teachers from Oklahoma and Missouri, including nine University alumni or wives of alumni, are shown as they waved farewell before boarding a Trans World Airline Constellation. Going aboard at La Guardia Field, New York City, September 20, they were enroute to Addis Ababa where they will teach in the government schools of Ethiopia. They are left to right, front row: Clayton Russell, Oklahoma City; Roy Heffner, '18ba, '19eng, former professor at the University; Kirk Rice, Stillwater; Alfred Ingram, Seminole; Dr. Perry Carmichael, '33m.ed, assistant to the Ethiopian Minister of Education, Eugene Parks of Checotah, his wife, Alma, and their daughter, Alma. Standing on the steps, left to right: R. M. McCool, '31, Norman; Robert Rice; Frank Massey, Sarcoxie, Missouri; Mrs. McCool; Mrs. Kirk Rice; Harry James, Clinton, and wife, Emma.

Sixty-four Enter Med School

Sixty-four students have been accepted as the freshman class at the University of Oklahoma School of Medicine. The fall term began September 20.

Selections were made on a competitive basis from 265 Oklahoma applicants. No out-of-state students were considered, although there were 1,500 requests for application blanks from students living in other states.

Originally scheduled to accept only 52, the class was increased after the Board of Regents made arrangements to open several wards in University Hospital and to use part of the facilities of other Oklahoma City hospitals for medical student teaching.

Class members are: Arthur W. Buswell, Kingfisher; Clarence C. Callicoat, Alva; Leo Patrick Cawley, Drumright; David Clifton Clemans, Guymon; Marion D. Christensen, Mutual; Ted Clemens, Jr., Oklahoma City; James Thomas Colwick, Jr., Durant.

Hugh M. Connor, Jr., Oklahoma City; Howard Sample Davenport, '41, David; Ralph Carrol Denny, Guthrie; James Louis Diacon, Alva; John H. Ennis, '48ba, Oklahoma City; James H. Elliott, Enid; John Robert Findlay, '48bs, Oklahoma City; Harry E. Fischer, Jr., Tulsa.

Maurice C. Fuquay, Hugo; M. Lloyd Godley, Jr., Woodward; Jasper Carl Hallford, Enid; Jack Allen Harris, Bartlesville; August Louis Helmbright, Jr., Okmulgee; Orville U. Holt, '41-'42, Muse; Joe Charles Horton, Hollis; Mahlon Eugene Ingham, Newkirk.

George Harry Jennings, Jr., '48bs, Oklahoma City; William Thomas Johnson, Oklahoma City; Stephen Tisdall Jones, Cordell; William Hunter Knoblock, Jr., Cushing; Allen F. Lawrence, Lawton; Joseph Karl Lester, Miami; Kenneth Gilbert Lowe, Atoka.

Willie George Long, Pauls Valley; Cecil Haynes Meares, Jr., Muskogee; James Merida McCleery, Oklahoma City; George Fred McDonald, Oklahoma City; James Leon McGovern, Wewoka; Robert Aubrey McGregor, '48ba, Mangum; George Elmer Merkley, '48ms, Depew.

Herman C. Moody, Portersdale, Georgia, formerly of Oklahoma City; John Morgan Moore, Ada; Arnold G. Nelson, Ninnekah; Hugh Beryl Norris, Tablequah; Stephen Parks, Stigler; William Robert Patten, Norman; Donald Earl Payne, Rush Springs; Robert Bryce Petrie, Oklahoma City.

George R. Randels, '48ba, Tulsa; Paul E. Sadler, Muskogee; Burl E. Stone, Council Hill; Jerald Raydell Senter, Tulsa; Catherine Anna Svoboda, Bartlesville; Billy B. Taylor, Chickasha; Lawrence E. Thompson, Jr., Muskogee; Charles R. Veirs, Pawhuska; William A. Vint, Strang; Jasper Lawrence Wheeler, Jr., Durant, and Granville Jean Womack, Stillwater.

Medical School Notes

- ▶ Martin Dale Edwards, '45med, has recently established an office in Oklahoma City.
- ▶ William H. Reiff, '39bs, '41med, recently opened an office in Oklahoma City. Dr. Reiff is limiting his practice to the field of Internal Medicine.
- ▶ William E. Price, '44ba, '46med, was a recent visitor to the School of Medicine. He is with the Navy at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California.
- ▶ C. P. Bishop, '35bs, '37med, has been awarded a scholarship by the State Department of Public Health to attend Columbia School of Public Health for the coming year.
- ▶ John F. Hackler, '31bs, '33med, professor of preventive medicine and public health, has resigned his position with the School of Medicine to accept that of director of the Muskogee City-County Health Department.