

Calling the Roll of Sooner Classes

~1907~

C. V. Lisman, '05-'07, is division landman with the Lion Oil Company in Midland, Texas.

Henry Lewis Stone, '06-'07, died unexpectedly April 14 following a heart attack. He was an Oklahoma City real estate broker. He established the Merchandise Mart in Oklahoma City and at one time was an Oklahoma City agent of the New York Life Insurance Co.

~1912~

Earl Foster, '12ba, '13Law, is the executive secretary of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission. He was formerly in the general practice of law in Sapulpa and Oklahoma City. He is a member of the Rotary Club, Masonic Blue Lodge, Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club and other civic clubs. He holds membership in the American Bar Association and the Oklahoma Bar Association and is a member of Council, Mineral Section, American Bar Association. He and Mrs. Foster, (Alta Estelle Sawyer Foster, '30ma) have two children, both graduates of the University.

~1913~

Miss S. Deborah Haines, '13ba, placed her oil paintings on exhibit in her home for a group of friends in May. Miss Haines lives in Norman.

~1914~

Everett Cecil Parker, '14ba, is a geologist with the Continental Oil Company in Ardmore.

~1916~

Oscar A. Kinchen, '16ba, '20ma, Lubbock, Texas, was a delegate of the University of Oklahoma at the inauguration of Dossie Marion Wiggins as president of Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

~1917~

Richard M. Dannenberg, '17ba, died May 2 in the Medical Arts Building in Oklahoma City where he had gone for treatment. He was a production engineer with the Shell Oil Company. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity and the Masonic lodge.

~1919~

James Miller Armstrong, '19ba, and Mrs. Armstrong, the former Mary Lee Galbraith, '18, are living in Midland, Texas, where Armstrong is a partner in the firm of Yeager & Armstrong, oil operators. He was formerly a geologist with the Sinclair Prairie Oil Company. They have two children.

~1920~

Velma Shaw Jones, '20, lives in Kingfisher, where her husband is a drug store operator. They have one son, Douglas Jones, 15.

Dr. A. Linscheid, '20ma, has resigned as president of East Central State College at Ada. He had held that position for the last 28 years. The Board of Regents of Oklahoma colleges unanimously elected him president emeritus for life and to the position of counselor of curriculum for one year. Dr. Linscheid resigned because of ill health. He had held his position longer than any teachers' college president in the state and longer than any president of a teachers' college of the American Association of Teachers' Colleges.

Homer Carl Helms, '20pharm, died May 22 at the Will Rogers hospital in Oklahoma City after a six-week illness with heart disease. He is survived by his wife and daughter, both of Oklahoma City.

Robert S. Gordon, '20ba, '20ph.g, '20eng, was elected vice president of the Midwestern operations of the National Dairy Products Corporation late in April. He was recently elected president of the Town Club in Scarsdale, New York.

~1921~

Robert William Henry, '21ba, '21eng, is director of the lubricants division in the Refining Department of the Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville.

Max W. Minton, '21ba, is a partner in the J. D. Minton Agency, an insurance, loans and abstracts company, Enid.

~1922~

William B. Ragan, '22ba, '28ma, will teach graduate courses at the Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, Oregon, June 15 to August 9. He will give three addresses at the State Conference of Elementary School Supervisors on the University of California at Los Angeles' campus in August. He will serve as consultant to the staff of Kern County schools, Bakersfield, California, on curriculum problems August 15 and 16. Dr. Ragan lives in Norman.

Mary Lou Pattenon Price, '22ba, is living in Bartlesville, where her husband, Harold Charles Price, is a general pipeline constructor. Mrs. Price was formerly a school teacher in both Bartlesville and Hugo.

~1923~

J. Wendall Mercer, '23ba, '23bs, '25med, is a practicing physician and surgeon in Enid. He and Mrs. Mercer have two children. The son, James W. Mercer, is attending the University at the present time.

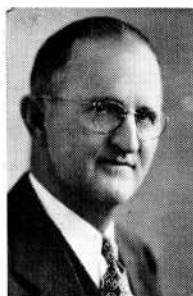

Zella Nesmith Brake, '23ba, died February 18, 1949. She had been employed by the Vetreans Administration for the last eight years. Her home was in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. C. N. Talley, '23med, is practicing medicine in Marlow.

Arda Evert Frans, '23bs, '31Lib.sci, '33ma, is a teacher and librarian in Cameron State Agricultural College at Lawton. She was formerly a cataloger at the University of Utah Library.

~1924~

Tom W. Garrett, '24Law, is a practicing attorney in Oklahoma City. He formed a law partnership with a son, Tom, Jr., early in March, 1949. He is a member of the Men's Dinner Club, Sequoyah Dinner Club and the Beacon Club. He recently accepted the position as secretary of the Lions Club. He is on the Executive Committee and is a Trustee of the Oklahoma City Boy Scouts.

TOM W. GARRETT

He was president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association in 1943. He is on the Executive Council of the Oklahoma State Bar Association for 1948-49. Garrett is the author of several articles on community property law and taxation. He and Mrs. Garrett are the parents of six children.

Dr. William Wade Fox, '24ba, '24bs, '26med, is a practicing physician and surgeon in Norman. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Credit Men's Association. He and Mrs. Fox, the former Katie Lee Moak, '26nurse, have three children, two of whom are now attending the University.

~1925~

Edythe Haswell Jones, '25h.ec, '34ms, is teaching science at Foster High School, Oklahoma City.

Lucile Snapp Dillsworth, '25h.ec, is teaching home economics in high school at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

~1926~

ALDRIDGE-MOLES: Mrs. Leonora Crisp Aldridge, '26bs, '30ms, Oklahoma City and Earl Brookhart Moles, Sioux City, Iowa, were married May 1 in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Moles was formerly a departmental art teacher in Oklahoma City schools. She was Creative Arts chairman for the American Association of University Women for six years. The couple has established a home in Sioux City, Iowa.

Pauline Huey Herber, '26h.ec, is teaching home economics at St. Joseph's School, Norman.

Darrell Althausen, '26bs, is the co-author of the second volume of The Essential Oils. Dr. Althausen received his doctorate degree in Organic Chemistry from the University of Illinois. He is manager of the Clifton Factor, Fritzsche Brothers, Inc., Clifton, New Jersey.

Opal Roberson, '26h.ec, is a home demonstration agent at Maysville, Missouri.

~1927~

Dr. Chesley Andrew Morgan, '27bs, '29med, is a practicing surgeon in Oklahoma City. He and his wife, Pauline Taylor Morgan, '31nurse, have one son, James Patrick Morgan, 12.

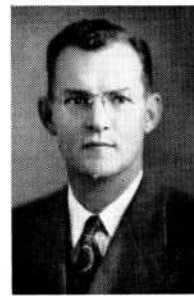

Natalie Broach Davis, '27fa, has lived in Scarsdale, New York, for the past 19 years. She and Mr. Davis have one son.

William Payne Ragsdale, '27ba, and Mrs. Ragsdale, '27ba, are living in Jacksonville, Florida, where Ragsdale is owner of the W. P. Ragsdale Distributor company.

Josephine Thompson Paulin, '27h.ec, is teaching home economics at Beggs High School, Beggs.

~1928~

Ross Williams Morrison, '28eng, is an architect and building manager in the architect firm of Reynolds & Morrison in Oklahoma City. He is a member of the Lions Club, Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce and the American Institute of Architects. He is on the Board of Directors of the Oklahoma City Building Owners and Managers Association. He served in the Navy during World War II as a

R. W. MORRISON

Lieutenant Commander, serving in Europe and the southern Pacific. He is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He and Mrs. Morrison are the parents of two children, Gertrude Ann, 6, and Mary Christine, who was born March 6.

Leila Margaret Ebright Beatty, '28h.ec, is a librarian in the University of Oregon Library, Eugene, Oregon.

Bryan H. Hyder, '28pharm, is co-owner of the Ross Drug Store in Clinton.

John Michael Hannegan, '28ms, is chief chemist with the G. H. Packwood Mfg. Co. at St. Louis, Missouri. He was formerly the supervisor of the chemical research laboratories for the Olin Industries. He and Mrs. Hannegan have two children.

Helen Hackett, '28h.ec, '30ms, is a librarian at the Post Library, Ft. Sill.

~1929~

Dr. Charles F. Spencer, '29ma, has been appointed president of East Central State college, Ada. He has served as mayor of Ada, a member of the governor's committee on constitutional revision, a drafter of model city charters and as president of the Oklahoma Municipal league. Dr. and Mrs. Spencer have two daughters.

J. D. Deason, '29ba, recently began publication of a new paper in Altus. The paper is called the Altus Sunday News. Deason is also editor and publisher of the Southwest News which he established in 1946.

Elbert Costner, '29ba, '34ma, has been re-elected superintendent of schools at Poteau. He has served in this capacity for eight years.

Ruby Grant, '29ed, '41m.com.ed, is recuperating at her home in Norman following an illness. Miss Grant was chairman of the business department at Eastern Oklahoma A.&M. College in Wilburton prior to her illness. She was formerly an assistant professor in the Northern Oklahoma Junior College at Tonkawa.

Bertha Juanita Stevens, '29h.ec, is a home demonstration agent at Okemah.

Harry S. McMillan, '29pharm, is pharmacist and manager of the McMillan Drug Company in Seiling.

Alta LeGate McSpadden, '29bus, is living in Pryor. She was formerly secretary-treasurer of the Muskogee Iron Works in Muskogee for 26 years. Her husband is an agricultural training officer in the Veterans Administration.

Camilla Starzer, '29h.ec, is teaching home economics at Guthrie.

Theodore Haskell Maloy, '29ba, is a public relations counselor in Dallas, Texas. He was formerly editor of the Elk City Daily News. He is a member of the Dallas Rotary Club, Sigma Delta Chi, and Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He and Mrs. Maloy have one daughter, Amy Lynn Maloy, 15.

Ross Allan Maxwell, '29geol, '31ms, is superintendent of Big Bend National Park in Marathon, Texas. He was formerly a geologist for the National Park Service. He and Mrs. Maxwell, the former Helen Elizabeth Newlin, '28h.ec, have two sons.

~1930~

J. Hubert Norris, '29-'30, is chief of the statistical and cost accounting section at Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma City. He has held this position for the past six years. He and Mrs. Norris, the former Linnie Louise James, '29ba, have two daughters, Virginia, 10, and Carolyn, 7.

Fay Coil, '30geol, '32ms, is a geologist with the Superior Oil Company in Midland, Texas.

The Reverend Russell L. Dicks, '30ba, received an honorary Doctor of Literature degree from Adrian College, Adrian, Michigan, June 5, 1949. He is a teacher in Duke University, Durham, North Carolina. He was formerly associate pastor of the Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, and assistant professor of Practical Theology at Southern Methodist University. Dicks has written several books and pamphlets and monthly articles appear in the Pulpit Digest and The Pastor.

Bethene Henry, '30h.ec, is teaching home economics at Eldorado.

Etta Belle Tolen Hopson, '30h.ec, is teaching in Houston, Texas.

~1931~

Berthe Bourgoin Webb, '31ba, '33ma, sailed for a visit to France, her native land, on the Queen Elizabeth April 28. Mrs. Webb taught French at the University of Oklahoma for several years. She now lives in Skiatook.

Ruth Adeline Jones Swoor, '31h.ec, is a dietitian at the Methodist Hospital, Dallas, Texas.

Maurine Rhodes Kingsley, '31ma, is an instructor in the Spanish Department at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Colorado. She and Mr. Kingsley have two sons.

Mary E. Kuhlman, '31h.ec, is an area home management supervisor, Farmer's Home Administration, Oklahoma City.

~1932~

Pearl Corn, '32ba, will serve as assistant education officer with a military government team stationed in Osaka, Japan. She was formerly a teacher in Oklahoma City schools.

Flora Kathrina Wild, '32h.ec, is teaching home economics at Webster Junior High School, Oklahoma City.

Louise Winn Getchell, '32ba, is reviser in the Copyright Cataloging Division of the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. She was formerly head of the Catalog Department at the University of Maryland Library, College Park, Maryland.

Lelia Beatrice Haddock Collins, '32h.ec, is teaching home economics at Headrick.

~1933~

George Scott Hammond, '33ba, '33eng, is an oil producer with offices in Dallas, Texas.

Mildred H. Hurst Sessions, '33h.ec, is with the El Paso County Child Welfare Board at El Paso, Texas.

Jess Larson, '22-'26-'33, was appointed by President Truman as administrator of the federal works agency late in April. Larson was formerly the mayor of Chickasha and secretary of the Oklahoma school land commission. He lives in Washington, D. C.

Helen Frances Barbour, '33h.ec, '39m.h.ec.ed, is teaching at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

~1934~

Mildred L. Vaughan, '34h.ec, is teaching home economics at Sulphur.

Joe C. Jackson, '34ed, '40m.ed, has completed the oral examinations for his doctorate degree from the University and will probably complete his dissertation this summer.

Barron C. Housel, Jr., '34bus, and Mrs. Housel, the former Geraldine Warner, '38ba, have chosen the name Stephen Warner Housel for their son born April 22 in Oklahoma City.

Blanche Portwood, '34h.ec, is State Supervisor of Home Economics Education in the State Department of Vocational Education, Oklahoma City.

~1935~

F. P. Hurry, '35geol, and Mrs. Hurry, the former Helen Marie Jennings, '37ba, announced the adoption of a son recently. They have named the boy Richard Jennings Hurry. Their home is in Purcell.

Dr. Richard D. Roys, '35ba, '39med, has been elected president of the Seattle Academy of Surgery for 1949-50. Mrs. Roys, the former Ruth Shannon, '36ed, was secretary to the Counselor of Women at the University prior to her marriage. The Roys have two children, David, 10, and Denise, 2. They live in Seattle, Washington.

Dr. W. W. Cotton, '35med, has moved to Poteau and opened an office there. He and Dr. R. W. Lowrey, '36bs, '36med, are building a new clinic in Poteau which will be opened the latter part of July. They both have previously been practicing in Atoka.

The following information was sent to us recently by the Foreign Service of the United States: "John Howard Burns, '35ba, Foreign Service officer, has been transferred from the State Department to Port au Prince as First Secretary and Consul. He has been a member of the Foreign Service since 1941 and has served at Ciudad Juarez, Para, and Rio de Janeiro, as well as in the Department of State. Mr. Burns is a native of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, and is a graduate of the local High School and of the University of Oklahoma. Before joining the Foreign Service he was Secretary to a member of Congress for a year. Mr. Burns' address in this country is: Pauls Valley, Oklahoma."

Dr. E. Evans Chambers, '35ba, '38bs, '40med, is a practicing surgeon in Enid. He and Mrs. Chambers, the former Virginia Hudson, '36ba, have one child, a son, six years old.

Ida Lee Warner Gist, '35Lib.sci, is living in Burbank, California, where her husband is a salesman. Mrs. Gist was formerly employed as a dress designer by the San Fernando Valley Sportswear Company in Los Angeles. She is president of the Burbank League of Women Voters. She is a member of the Women's Club of Burbank, Women's Council and A.A.U.W.

Ruth Highsmith Riffe, '35h.ec, is teaching home economics at Hobart.

George Louis King, '35eng, is division engineer with the Oklahoma Gas & Electric Company in Muskogee.

~1936~

Mildred Lee Shears, '36h.ec, is a dietitian at Municipal Hospital, Norman.

Revah Erma McLain Draper, '36h.ec, is teaching home economics at Memphis, Texas.

~1937~

THURMOND-SPRINGER: Virginia Thurmond, Healdton, and Harold L. Springer, '37ba, '39Law, Davis, were married in the home of the bride's parents in April. After they return from their wedding trip in June they plan to establish a residence in the state.

Elizabeth Ruth Sneed, '37h.ec, is on the home institute staff of the Tulsa Tribune, Tulsa.

Walter W. Butcher, '37geol, is an independent geologist in Oklahoma City. He was formerly assistant of Sub-surface Geology for the Creole Petroleum Corporation in Caracas, Venezuela.

Francile Elizabeth Clark, '37ba, is librarian at the Seton School of Nursing Library in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She was formerly head nurse and clinical instructor in the Crippled Children's Hospital in Oklahoma City. Prior to that she was public health staff nurse for the Seminole County Health Department in Wewoka.

Dr. William F. LaFon, '37med, is associated with a clinic in Alva, Oklahoma. He and his wife, Jonnie Busby LaFon, '38nurse, have two children, John, 10, and Ann, 7.

Roy Winfield Jones, '37ph.d, is a professor of zoology at Oklahoma A.& M. College, Stillwater. He is chairman of course in biological science. He has held this position since September, 1947. He was dean of the college at Central State College, Edmond, for 18 years before accepting his present position. He and Mrs. Jones, the former Maurine King, '32m.ed, have two children, Neil, 10, and Marian, 8. Mrs. Jones is also teaching. During the recent War, Jones was an executive officer of the V-12 unit, Penn State.

ROY WINFIELD JONES

~1938~

William H. Strang, '38eng, was a speaker at a meeting of the O.U. Petroleum Engineering Club late in April. Strang is executive secretary of the Petroleum division of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers. He lives in Dallas, Texas.

Clarence D. Northcutt, '38Law, '39ba, and Mrs. Northcutt, the former Ruth Storms, '38ba, have named their son, born April 6, John Edward Northcutt. They live in Ponca City.

William George McCreight, '38bs, '40med, received a master of science degree in dermatology and syphilology from the University of Minnesota in March, 1949. He is living in Oklahoma City.

Illustrations by Mary Baker, '28, were featured in a 3-page layout in a recent issue of Life. The pictures were from a book which Miss Baker illustrated. She has done such work for New York publishers for several years. Miss Baker is from Okmulgee.

Lynn W. Burrus and Mrs. Burrus, the former Margaret Ray, '38fa, Oklahoma City, announced the birth of a son April 20. They have named the boy Stephen Lynn Burrus.

~1939~

Mary Adelaide Snider, '39h.ec, is a dietitian at Lakeshore Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Dr. Herbert McDaniels and Mrs. McDaniels, the former Thelma Clay, '39ed, announced the birth of a son May 9. They have named the infant Michael Clay McDaniels. They have another son, William Eli McDaniels, 2 years old. The McDaniels now live in Western Springs, Illinois. They formerly lived in Chicago.

RILEY-GARRETT: Dorris Riley, '39ed, '46 m.ed, Healdton, was married to Hugh Garrett, Wetumka, on April 8. The couple has established a home in Wetumka.

Alice Kistler Lawson, '39fa, is living in Tulsa, where her husband is in the oil business. They have three children, two boys and a girl.

Marilyn L. Lack Mannen, '39h.ec, is secretary-treasurer and chief accountant of Enterprise Publishing Company at Pauls Valley.

~1940~

Antonia Sandlin Forward, '40, is living in Midland, Texas, where her husband, Frederick William Forward, is a district geophysicist with the Phillips Petroleum Company. They have one child, Frederick William Forward, Jr., 5 years old.

Ida Maude Emerye Brett, '40h.ec, is a medical research librarian at Ellison Infirmary, University of Oklahoma, Norman.

W. Byron Smith and Mrs. Smith, the former Joy McBath, '40fa, are the parents of a daughter born April 7 in Wesley hospital. They have named the child Dana Mackey Smith. The Smiths live in Oklahoma City.

Edmund T. Anderson, '40eng, has recently been made production superintendent of the C. T. McLaughlin company with headquarters in Snyder, Texas. He was formerly associated with Dowell, Inc. He and Mrs. Anderson have two children. They live in Midland, Texas.

Clara Bernice Petty, '40h.ec, is teaching in grade school at Pauls Valley.

Jesse Schrameck, '40bus, is employed by the Deep Rock Oil Corporation. He and Mrs. Schrameck, the former Katherine Grim, '40bus, are living in Tulsa. He was formerly employed by the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company at Duncan.

Dewey Lance, '40bus, is in charge of the statement section of Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company.

Charles H. Young, '40Law, is serving as executive legal assistant to Chief Justice Denver N. Davidson, '15Law, of the state supreme court and marshal of the court. Young succeeded Jack E. Wilson, '39bus, '42Law, who resigned January 1 to become assistant county attorney.

Laretta K. Sager, '40h.ec, is teaching home economics at Central High School, Tulsa.

Lynn D. Wright, '40, is a design draftsman at the Chase Aircraft Company in Trenton, New Jersey.

Orville C. Rogers, '40eng, and Mrs. Rogers, the former Esther Beth Shannon, '41ba, announced the birth of a son April 22. They have named the boy William Shannon Rogers. They live in Dallas, Texas.

~1941~

Ruth Kamber Osherwitz, '41journ, is living in Duncan where her husband is associated with the Dixie Store. They are the parents of three daughters, two of whom are twins.

B. D. McCampbell, '41eng, is a petroleum engineer with the Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., Oklahoma City. He was team captain of the Varsity Polo team for three years while attending O.U. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He served five years in the army, serving in Australia, New Guinea, Philippine Islands and Netherlands East Indies.

G. D. Spradlin, '41ed, '48Law, is general counsel for the Phillips Oil Company in Caracas, Venezuela. He and Mrs. Spradlin have two children, Tamara Dare Spradlin, 4, and Wendy Diane Spradlin, 5 months.

L. G. Friedrichs, '41phys.ed, former coach at Holy Cross high school in New Orleans, Louisiana, has accepted the position as head coach at St. Louis University high school.

Samuel Edward Geffen, '40-'41, and Mrs. Geffen, the former Korene Harris, '43journ, announced the birth of their first child on March 15. They have named the boy Charles Harris Geffen. The Geffens live in Midland, Texas, where Geffen is assistant superintendent of the Baroid Sales Division.

Rexina Hempler, '41Lib.sci, is a librarian at the University of California at Los Angeles. She was formerly assistant librarian at the Fitzsimmons General Army Hospital in Denver, Colorado.

Nina Lynn Scott Strachan, '41nurse, is living in Pueblo, Colorado, where her husband, Edwin Duane Strachan, is bandmaster at a high school. Mrs. Strachan was formerly a field staff nurse for the Oklahoma State Health Department. They have one son, Duane Scott Strachan, aged 20 months.

William S. McCready, '41eng, is an engineer in the production department of Phillips Petroleum Company. He lives in Ardmore.

~1942~

J. S. Munsey, '38-'42, former University football star, was buried May 11 in St. Louis, Missouri. Munsey was killed April 22, 1944 when his B-24 went down in flames in an English swamp. He was posthumously awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism, the Air Medal, one Oak Leaf cluster and Purple Heart.

John A. Blaschke, '42, and Mrs. Blaschke, Oklahoma City, have named their son Michael James Blaschke. He was born April 18 at St. Anthony hospital in Oklahoma City.

Marjory Curtis, '42h.ec, is with the statistical service laboratory at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

Robert W. Finley, '41-'42, and Mrs. Finley, Amarillo, Texas, announced the birth of a son May 9.

William A. Heierding, '42, and Mrs. Heierding announced the birth of a son May 1 in Oklahoma City. They have named the infant William H. Heierding, Jr.

Vivian Saukeah Davis, '42bus, is employed as a clerical secretary in the zoological sciences department at the University of Oklahoma. Her husband, Jesse Davis, is attending O.U.

Marcus Willard Fuller, '42fa, is working toward a master's degree at the University of Southern California at Los Angeles. He is also an instructor.

Illene Street, '42h.ec, is a county home demonstration agent at Unionville, Missouri.

Walt Grove, '42, has resigned as fiction editor for Collier's magazine. He plans to free-lance.

Browning Adams, '42bs, and Mrs. Adams, Atlanta, Georgia, visited in Norman the latter part of April with their parents. Adams is instructor-inspector with the Civil Aeronautics administration at Atlanta.

C. D. Jones, '42geol.eng, '42pet.eng, is a production geologist for the Humble Company at McCamey, Texas.

Harry H. Broadbent, '42ba, formerly wrestling coach at Washington and Lee University has resigned his position to accept a similar one at San Diego State College in California.

Ernest M. Hite, '42bus, and Mrs. Hite, the former Betty Donaldson, '40soc.wk, have selected the name John Melvin Hite for their son born May 11 in Oklahoma City.

Elmo Heerwald, '42bus, and Mrs. Heerwald, the former Betty Blanton, '43ed, have selected the name Helen Gaye for their daughter born May 12 in Norman. They have another child, Johnny, two and one-half years old.

Harold A. Landsman, '42bus, has become affiliated with a public accounting firm in New York City.

R. M. Carroll, Jr., '42eng, is an exploitation engineer with the Shell Oil Co., Inc. at McCamey, Texas. He and Mrs. Carroll, the former Anne Petry, '40-'42, live in Electra, Texas.

~1943~

McNEES-WALKER: Marjorie McNeess, '42-'43, formerly of Ardmore, and Huffman Walker, '46 bus, Houston, Texas, are at home in Houston following their recent marriage.

Janice Meredith Howell, '43ma, is affiliated with the Capital Hill Junior High School speech department. She has been head of the department for the past two years.

McMURRY-ALEXANDER: Lucie McMurry, Dallas, Texas, and Robert D. Alexander, '41-'43, Oklahoma City, were married May 21 in the First Presbyterian church in Dallas. They are at home in Denver, Colorado.

Neal J. Mosely, '43eng, is a patent agent for the Detroit Lubricating Company in Detroit, Michigan. For the past two years he has served as president of the Detroit O.U. Alumni Club, having organized the club and made it a success. He is attending law school at Wayne University, where he is head of his class in grade average. He is active in the Pi Kappa Alpha Alumni Club in Detroit and is secretary-treasurer this year.

George P. Vlahakis, '43bus, received a master's degree in business administration from the Stanford Graduate School of Business in June.

Garland Moore, '43, is currently appearing in the Italian movie "Paisan." Moore has signed a film contract with David O. Selznick.

Dr. Gayle V. Farmer, '42-'43, and Mrs. Farmer have selected the name Terry Dwayne Farmer for their son born May 1 in Oklahoma City.

Dorothy R. Hames Foushee, '43h.ec, is a dietitian at Watts Hospital at Durham, North Carolina.

Barbara Christian, '43ba, chief stewardess for American Airlines in Dallas, was a speaker at the annual Career Conference held on the O.U. campus. Miss Christian spoke on the requirements of a stewardess.

Cleo Maxine Meredith Liles, '43ba, is a child welfare worker in the Department of Public Welfare for Carter County. She lives in Ardmore.

Eunice Alice Cormack, '43m.h.ec, is teaching at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio.

William Byron Hill, '43eng, is an office engineer with the Ditmars Dickmann Pickens Construction Co., Muskogee. He was formerly an office engineer in the Utilities Department at O.U. He and Mrs. Hill, the former Mary Alice Carmichael, '43 h.ec, have one child, Harriet Lou Hill, 2 years old.

~1944~

Cliff Horton, '44, and Mrs. Horton, the former Bobbie D. Bare, '47, are living in Oklahoma City. Horton is manager of a commercial interior decorating firm. They have a son, Robert Dale Horton, six months old.

Dan C. Hamilton, Jr., '44eng, and Mrs. Hamilton announced the birth of a daughter May 8. They have named the child Cynthia Hamilton. They live in Fort Worth, Texas.

Norma B. Collins, '44h.ec, is a dietitian at University of Oklahoma Hospitals at Oklahoma City.

Porter Rankin, '44eng, is an independent oil operator in Midland, Texas. He and Mrs. Rankin have one child, a son, 4 months old.

Ernestine Graham Seikel, '44journ, is now living in Hennessey, where her husband has recently purchased a dry goods store. Mrs. Seikel has been elected president of the Hennessey chapter of the American Association of University Women. The Seikels have two children, their second son born December 29 at Enid.

Eunice Chambers Judd, '44bus, is living in East Greenwich, Rhode Island. Her husband, Roy Lee Judd, '41, is chief warrant officer on the U.S.S. Kearsarge, C.V.33. They have a daughter, Judith Lee Judd, 3.

Luverne E. Green Loyd, '44h.ec, is teaching home economics at Farewell, Texas.

~1945~

Donald Eugene Smith, '45eng, and Mrs. Smith, announced the birth of a son April 23. They have named the infant David Kennedy Smith. The Smiths live in Zelma.

Ethel M. Locke, '45m.h.ec.ed, is teaching home economics at Eufaula High School, Eufaula.

J. M. Thorp, '45eng, and Mrs. Thorp, Hobbs,

New Mexico, announced the birth of a daughter April 29. Thorp is employed by the Tidewater Oil Company.

NAIFEH-HANIOTIS: Dorothy Mae Naifeh, '45 soc.wk, Sapulpa, and C. G. Haniotis, Jr., New York, are at home in New York following their marriage in April.

Keith Fowler, '45ba, '48bus, is employed by the Phillips Petroleum Company at Amarillo, Texas.

May Rollow, '45m.h.ec, is assistant state supervisor at the State Capitol, Oklahoma City.

~1946~

Lt. H. R. Mackey, '46, and Mrs. Mackey, the former Toni Burnham, '45h.ec, announced the birth of a son May 11. They have named the boy Richard Ross Mackey. Lt. Mackey is stationed in Guam with the marine corps.

Roberta Blanche Strong, '46h.ec, is teaching in kindergarten at Maplewood, New Jersey.

HARDEMAN-BARBOUR: Harriet B. Harde- man, '44-'46, McAlester, and Mack Edwin Bar- bour, '46Lib.sci, Norman, are at home in Norman following their wedding Easter Sunday in Mc- Alester. Barbour is administrative assistant of the 120th Medical battalion, Oklahoma National Guard at Norman.

DISCUS-ROGERS: Nadine Discus, Denver City, Texas, and Verdon Rogers, '42-'43-'46, Eldorado, were married in Denver City late in April. Rogers is the publisher of the Eldorado Courier. The couple has established a home in Eldorado.

Gloria Turner, '46h.ec, is a dietitian at Phila- delphia General Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylv- ania.

~1947~

Leo D. Ward, '47, has recently become manag- ing editor of the Lindsay News. He was formerly associated with the Gaines County News, Sea- graves, Texas.

Charles O'Neal and Mrs. O'Neal, the former Betty Oliver, '47ba, have named their daughter, born April 5 in Stillwater, Elizabeth Gayle O'Neal. They live in Stillwater.

Harry S. Baer, Jr., '47journ, police reporter on the Dayton (Ohio) Daily News, spent a vacation in Oklahoma late in April. He formerly was avia- tion editor of the Dayton Journal. Baer received a master's degree at Columbia University in June, 1948.

Vanna Pauline Mershon, '47h.ec, is home serv- ice director at Oklahoma Natural Gas Company at Clinton.

Richard Ward Hillyer, '47eng, is a reservoir and secondary recovery engineer with the Carter Oil Company in Seminole. He and his wife, Betty Nell Cheadle Hillyer, '46-'47, are the parents of a son, Richard W. Hillyer, Jr., three months old.

William Dale Trumbly, '47geol, is a geologist with the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company in Midland, Texas. He and Mrs. Trumbly have two children, William Dale, Jr., 2 and one-half, and Mary Adair, 8 months.

Luther Terry Tidwell, '47eng, is a sales engi- neer with the Oilwell Supply Company in Mid- land, Texas. He and Mrs. Tidwell are the parents of two daughters, Patricia Ann, 1 year and Joan, 1 month.

William D. Schubert, '45-'47, and Mrs. Schu- bert, the former Virginia Eisenlohr, '45bus, an- nounced the birth of a daughter in March. They have named the child Susan. Schubert graduated from New York University in January and is now a buyer and manager for the general merchand- ise department of the East India Export Co. The Schuberts live in New York.

Josephine Schiefer Scott, '47bus, is a public ac- countant in Duncan.

Dorothy Jane Canfield, '47h.ec, is teaching home economics at Oklahoma City.

GROSKRUGER-TRAPP: Electa Jean Grosz- kruger, Belle Plaine, Iowa, and James Allen Trapp, '47eng, Ames, Iowa, were married May 12 in Belle Plaine. The couple has established a home in Ames. Trapp is working on a master's degree at Iowa State College where he is an assistant pro- fessor of electrical engineering.

Dr. Henry Grady Ryan, II, '47med, and Mrs. Ryan, Healdton, became the parents of a son May 13. They have named the child William Roger Ryan.

BECKER-VAMMEN: Hazel Lee Becker, '47 journ, and Dr. A. N. Vammen, '44med, both of Lawton, were married April 9 in the home of the bride's parents. The couple has established a home in Lawton where Dr. Vammen is a physician at the Kiowa Indian hospital. Mrs. Vammen is a public relations and speech instructor at the Young Academy of Arts, Ada.

Herbert M. Krigel, '47eng, is practicing law in Kansas City, Missouri.

Daniel Hayes, '47geol, is employed with the Sohio Oil Company in Oklahoma City.

John R. Murray, '47pet.eng, is a petroleum engineer with the Ohio Oil Company, Houston, Texas.

Louise Leon Parish, '48bus, is an oil scout with the Skelly Oil Company in Ardmore.

G. W. Woods, '48eng, and Mrs. Woods, Okla- homa City, have selected the name Susan Marie Woods for their daughter born May 10 in Wesley hospital.

Robert V. Norvill, '48eng, has begun the train- ing program in retailing at the Emporium in San Francisco. He received a master's degree in busi- ness administration from the Stanford Graduate School of Business in March, 1949.

Max M. Schiff, '48bus, is an accountant with the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company in Duncan.

Shirley Erlene Batchelor, '48fa, is living in Enid, where she is employed by Penney's Department Store.

William A. Dow, '48eng, and Mrs. Dow, the former Esthe Anne Shook, '48ed, are living in Bartlesville. Dow is a research fellow with the Engineering Experiment Station, Iowa State Col- lege.

Jack Allen Morgan, '48eng, is a petroleum engi- neer with the Sun Oil Company, Kilgore, Texas. He and Mrs. Morgan have a daughter, Marye Morgan, 2 years old.

Carl A. Bentley, '48eng, is a petroleum engineer with the Mack Oil Company, Duncan.

Ed Kerr, '48geol, is a geologist with Phillips Petroleum Company in Midland, Texas.

Peggy Lynne Jordan Whitton, '48ba, is em- ployed as a caseworker with the Department of Public Welfare in Ardmore. Her husband, Walter Harold Whitton, Jr., '46-'47, is a cabinet maker in Ardmore.

Frances Preston Wozencraft, '48h.ec, is an as- sistant in Home Economics Nursery School, Uni- versity of Oklahoma, Norman.

YARGER-CHAMPION: Bette Jean Yarger, '48 journ, Madill, became the bride of Roland Cham- pion, '47ba, Tulsa, in a ceremony performed in the First Methodist Church at Madill Easter Sun- day. Mrs. Champion was awarded the Dad's Day Award as the most outstanding woman student, was president of the Student Union Activities Board; president of Gamma Alpha Chi, advertis- ing fraternity; vice-president of Mortar Board, and was active in many other groups while a student at the University. Since her graduation Bette has been with the Extension Division of the University, working with interscholastic activities. Champion also served as president of the U.A.B., was chairman of the 1946 Homecoming and the founder of the All-University Sing. The couple is now at home in Tulsa, where Champion is employed by the Carter Oil Company.

Gene Ritter, '48Law, and Mrs. Ritter, the former Barbara Christian, '43ba, announced the birth of a daughter April 14. Polly Ann is the name chosen for the infant. The Ritters live in Ardmore. Ritter is county attorney for Carter County.

Carolyn Jean Huber Houser, '48h.ec, is a graduate student and dietetic interne at A.&M. College, Stillwater.

Harold E. Spears, '48bus, and Mrs. Spears, the former Ruth Chappell, '37-'40, announced the birth of a daughter on March 4. They have named the child Barbara Ann. Spears owns several ice cream stores in Portland, Oregon.

Russell L. Brown, '48bus, and Mrs. Brown, Oklahoma City, announced the birth of a daughter May 9 in Wesley Hospital, Oklahoma City. They have named the child Rebecca Ann Brown.

Knox Allen Slagle, '48eng, is a chemical engineer with the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company, Duncan.

Dean F. Werner, '48med, and Mrs. Werner, the former Phyllis Tengdin, '45journ, are living in Denver, Colorado, where Dr. Werner is an interne at Denver General Hospital.

Vera I. Parman, '48h.ec, is an instructor in dietetics at University of Oklahoma Hospitals, Oklahoma City.

Wilfred W. Dawson, '48arch, is an architectural designer in Ardmore.

Thelma Mitchell Gunning, '48h.ec, is a librarian at Junior Agricultural College, Wilburton.

Arthur G. Webster, '48ba, is teaching history and Spanish at Chandler High School, Chandler.

Donald E. Powers, '48Law, is county attorney of Lincoln County. He resides in Chandler.

John Creig Coogan, '48eng, is a petroleum engineer with the Sohio Petroleum Company, Edmond. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Fred Jones, Jr., '48geol, is a geologist with the Gulf Oil Corporation. He is living in Ardmore.

Mary Teague Fisher, '48h.ec, is assistant county home demonstration agent at Cordell.

Herman E. Nichols, Jr., '48geol, is assistant geologist with the Gulf Oil Corporation at Ardmore.

Ross Roger Gahring, '48geol, has been a geologist with the Phillips Petroleum Company for the past year. He lives in Ardmore with his wife and daughter.

Wallace Saultz, '48geol, is a geologist with Pure Oil Company. He is doing surface work in southeastern New Mexico.

HUNTER-PHILLIPS: Jackye Lou Hunter, '48ba, and James Maurice Phillips, Jr., '49bus, both of Oklahoma City, were married April 30 in the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Phillips was secretary of her senior class. She also served as president of Jefferson House. Phillips is a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity. They have established a home in Oklahoma City.

SOLLIDAY-WHITE: Anne Van Ness Solliday, '48ba, Tulsa, and Robert D. White, '48bus, Amarillo, Texas, were married April 18. White is a scout for the Continental Oil Company in Amarillo, where the couple has established a home.

Lt. Warren G. Van Brunt, '48ba, will be joined in Tokyo by his wife, their son, and their daughter, Vickie, who was born April 24 in Norman. Mrs. Van Brunt plans to leave in August.

Doris C. Colpitt, '48fa, is living in Pasadena, California.

Dick T. Quisenberry, '48eng, is employed with Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Helen Lee Wayne, '48h.ec, is a clerk-typist with the Atlantic Refining Company, Midland, Texas.

~1949~

Robert D. Hay, '49bus, has accepted a position as instructor in business letter writing at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Hay has been employed in the department of business communications at the University since his graduation.

Dan Herbert Schusterman, '49eng, served as co-chairman of the Awards Committee for the senior class of 1949. He was active in numerous organizations on the campus and served two terms as president of the Hillel Council. His home is in Tulsa.

Robert M. Tidwell, '49bs, was chairman of the Caps and Gowns Committee for the senior graduating class of 1949. His home is in Poteau.

Virgil Clifton Neal, '49bs, served as treasurer of the Senior Class of 1949. His home is in Helena.

Mary Alice Archer, '49bs, served as secretary of the Senior Class of 1949. She was active on the Union Activities Board and was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. Her home is in Oklahoma City.

Margaret Lillian Dent, '49ba, was chairman of the Senior Day Activities for the graduating class of 1949. Her home is in Mexico, Missouri.

Shirley Leah Sureck, '49ba, was chairman of the Announcement Committee for the senior class of 1949. She has been active in the Pan Hellenic Council, Associated Women Students, and served as secretary of the Hillel Council. Her home is in Oklahoma City.

Joe B. Woodson, '49bs, was president of the senior class of 1949. He has been active in the International Club and the Independent Men's Association. Woodson hopes to enter the Syracuse University College of Medicine in Syracuse, New York. His home is in Poteau.

Milton Paul Christensen, '49eng, was co-chairman of the Awards Committee and the Awards Day Activity for the senior class of 1949. He was employed as a mathematics assistant while he was attending the University. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Tau, and Pi Epsilon Tau, honorary fraternities. His home is Hartington, Nebraska.

For Thine Is the Kingdom . . .

ONE INCREASING PURPOSE, The Life of Henry Winters Luce, by B. A. Garside, '13ba. Fleming H. Revell Company, $3.75.

"On Easter Sunday in 1892 a Yale undergraduate decided that the one purpose of his life would be to seek first the Kingdom of God," the cover reads and it is with this philosophy and tone that the biography of Henry Winters Luce is written.

Author Bettis A. Garside lived among the same conditions that missionary Luce did. One of the compelling features of this book is the knowledge and warm understanding that permeates the written word.

Overlooking the shortcomings—a lack of concentration on his spiritual work in favor of his personal leadership, and little mention of his famous children—Author Garside leads the reader across the world with the man who helped to diffuse knowledge, both academically and theologically, to the Chinese.

The story tells of the missionary's preparation at Princeton, his voyage to Tengchow College to teach and his physical departure from the Chinese scene.

In between he found time to propose that sectarian schools should be relinquished for a vastly Stanley James Rubenstein, '49ba, was chairman of the Book Drive and Senior Class Memorial Committee for the graduating class of 1949. His home is in Alton, Illinois.

Lewis Richmond Powers, '42-'49, former architect student at the University, was killed in a truck-automobile collision May 8 in Oklahoma City. Powers was returning to Oklahoma City from Norman, where he had played with a dance band. He was 26 years old. He is the son of J. L. Powers, '17ba, '27ms, Webster junior high school principal, Oklahoma City.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.