

Dallas Proves Enjoyable

Alumni from all over the Southwest gathered at the Dallas O.U. Alumni Openhouse following the October 8 Texas-O.U. football game. It was an afternoon everyone enjoyed (except Texas U.) with O.U. winning 20-14.

1. Looking as if they are about to break forth into Boomer Sooper are this victory-happy group. From left to right they are Carl Thain, '47eng, Tulsa; Henry J. Beck, Jr., '42eng, Houston; C. Dick Wilson, '35, Houston, J. S. "Cotton" Mendenhall, '35bs, president of the Dallas Alumni chapter and James E. Hubbard, '38, Houston.

2. Completely pleased with the process of registration are these smiling alumni. They are Anna June Story, student from Duncan; Dick Stroud,

'29, Dallas; Mrs. Dick Simon, the former Gloria Cannon, '42ba, Dallas; Mrs. T. R. Beck, Bartlesville, and Mrs. Henry J. Beck, Jr., the former Roberta Huff, '33ba, Houston.

3. Taking time out to relax from the afternoon's excitement are T. J. Fuson, '34eng, and Mrs. Fuson, the former Nita Marlette, '32ed, of Houston.

4. Still singing praises of the Sooner team are John Bingman, '47bus, and Mrs. Bingman, the former Sally Berryhill, '47ba, from Sapulpa, and Chester Potts, '47bus, and Mrs. Potts of Okmulgee.

5. Another couple take advantage of a chance to rest. They are Mr. Cecil R. Hickman, '17ba, and Mrs. Hickman, the former Eureth Holt, '19ba, of Fort Worth.

Midland-Odessa Club Elects

Members of the Midland-Odessa (Texas) Alumni Club elected new officers at a September barbecue.

Officers elected were H. L. Beckman, '37eng, president, of Midland; Bob Cocanower, '37-'42, vice president, of Odessa; and Mrs. Tom L. Ingram, the former Joan Looney, '48, secretary-treasurer, of Midland.
