

Mrs. Fred Barbee and Fred Barbee, '46ba, recapture THE leopard with Paul Reed, '21, commissioner of public safety, and A. H. "Dutch" Richards. A general view of the meeting includes Mark Hargis, '26eng, Bob Loshbough, '50bus, and Bob Smith, '50bus. In the background is Lacie Huff, '30bus, W. T. Huff, and Mrs. Bess Wilkie, '34ed.

Same for Oklahoma City

Oklahoma County alumni met March 9th in the Civic Room of the Biltmore Hotel to see the Sugar Bowl Film.

Gomer Jones, pinch hitting for the then ailing Bud Wilkinson, narrated the film and told the group of the prospects for 1950. Jones is assistant coach.

Dick Virtue, '44ba, club president introduced George Cumtings, '49bus, executive secretary of the Association.

Guy Brown, '42ba, '48ma, field representative of the Alumni Development Fund, and Ben Head, '42bus, '48Law, Fund counselor, informed the gathering of the upcoming Fund drive in Oklahoma City.

Above and Below are pictures of the alumni present.

Conversation temporarily interrupted Dr. H. A. Foerster, '25bs, '27med, Joe Whitten, '27Law, Dwight Mitchell, Jr., '43ba, and Mrs. Mitchell watch the proceedings. At the right, conversation uninterrupted, are Bill W. McIntyre, '43, and Mrs. McIntyre, and Mrs. James Haley and James Haley, '49bus.

On February 14 the San Francisco Bay Area Alumni Association held a cocktail party and dance at the Letterman Hospital Recreation Hall. In the middle of the evening a movie was presented depicting Oklahoma's Forest Survey and Lumber Industries.

After the movie, a short business meeting was held. Pictured above are some of the attendants at the meeting. On the right are Robert Harper, '41, Thomas J. Galbraith, '19ba, Nina Stone Morris and Josephine Paxton, '29ba, '32Lib.sci. And pictured on the left is a trio composed of Paul Lee, '37-'41, Mrs. Pearl Paxton Morris, '32ba, '34ms, and Belle Gough, '26ba, '31ma. Club officers for this group are: president, George Penney, '28-'30; vice president, Emily Smith, '31ma; treasurer, Paul Lee, and secretary, Josephine Paxton.

For Dallas, The Peacock Terrace

No one can say the Dallas Alumni Club is not a working organization. Recently J. S. "Cotton" Mendenhall, '35bus, club president, informed the alumni office:

"We have arranged to get the Peacock Terrace in the Baker Hotel for a dinner dance on Friday, October 13th, which is the weekend of the O.U.-Texas game."

Sooner Magazine will carry more details in a later issue.

Beaver County Organizes

An organizational meeting of Beaver County alumni was held in the Methodist Church, Beaver, March 17.

J. Merle Lansden, '39Law, served as master of ceremonies. He introduced Guy H. Brown, '42ba, '48ma, field representative of the Alumni Development Fund, who told of Fund Projects and needs. George Cummings, '49bus, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, unreeled the color movie of the Sugar Bowl affair.

North Plains Gets Charter

The North Plains of Texas Alumni Club, Borger-Pampa area, met March 16 in the Bunavista cafeteria building near Borger, to see the Texas-O.U. football film and to complete charter details for the organization.

Officers were elected for the new club. W. C. Hewitt, '36eng, president; Dick Askew, '47eng, '48m.eng, vice president, and Sam C. Naifeh, '39eng, '49m.eng, secretary-treasurer, will serve for the first year.

George Cummings, '49bus, executive secretary of the Alumni Association presented the charter to the new officers. Guy H. Brown, '42ba, '48ma, field representative of the Alumni Development Fund, outlined Fund needs and purposes.

The Kansas City, Missouri, Alumni Club held a meeting March 4 in the Muehlebach Hotel with about 80 alumni in attendance. Officers for the year were elected. Pictured on the right is Knowlton E.

Carson, '32ba, the new vice president; Francis Henry, '34bs, the past vice president and Arch Wheeler, '38bus, the new president. On the left are five Sooners scrutinizing an apparently important bit of correspondence. They are Dick Wagner, '30Law, Lucyle Skinner, '44ba, Mrs. Harry Moreland, Leslie G. Everitt, '20, and Ray Snodgrass, '36ba, '38Law.