Charles Memminger, '14ba, '33Law, president; George Cummings, '49bus; Joe Ralls, '20, secretary treasurer; and Robert G. Cate, Jr., '39pharm, vice president, at the Atoka County Club meeting which chalked up an Alumni Association record with 100 per cent present.

The month was an unusual meeting period for O.U. alumni clubs. A new record for meetings was set. In Atoka County

They Went Whole Hog

N ever in the history of the Alumni Association has there been a month to compare with it.

From October 2 to November 8, 16, alumni clubs met all over the United States. And never in the history of the Alumni Association has one club accomplished what the Atoka County clubbers did on November 9.

When the club members gathered at a meeting to present their application for charter to alumni assistant executive secretary George Cummings, '49bus, 54 names were affixed and a 100 percent record went into the books.

Charles Memminger, '14ba, '33Law, and Joe Ralls, '20, both Atoka attorneys led the drive to its successful conclusion. Memminger was elected president of the club and Ralls was chosen secretary-treasurer. Robert G. Cates, Jr., '39pharm, was named vice-president. (Names of all those who were charter signers appear in the photograph below.)

Everywhere alumni representatives met with club officials the results were the same —impressive. Consider the following record:

Mayes County. In a meeting of Mayes County Alumni at the First Christian Church in Pryor, an application for charter was presented and a club organized. Alumni representative George Cummings met with the club at a dinner session. The O.U.-L.S.U. Sugar Bowl film was unreeled.

Officers elected were Ernest R. Brown, Jr., '49Law, president, Mrs. O'Rhaitia Cunningham Battenfield, '38ba, '40h.ec, vice president, and Mrs. Dorothy Connally Settle, '47bus, secretary-treasurer.

Craig County. Alumni of Craig County met in Vinita October 4 for a meeting with Cummings to discuss the possibility of an alumni club in their area. No officers were elected and the club did not present an application for charter. A meeting will be held in the near future to complete the organization of the club.

Los Angeles. The Western Avenue Golf Course in Los Angeles, California was the meeting place for Los Angeles County alumni October 11. The 1950 Sugar Bowl film was shown and officers were elected. George Cummings attended the meeting. Nearly 100 Los Angeles residents attended the dinner meeting.

Sequoyah County. An organizational meeting of Sequoyah County alumni was held October 17 in Sallisaw. An application for an alumni club charter was presented to Guy Brown, '42ba, '48ma, alumni representative. Officers for the new club were elected. Those chosen were J. Fred Green, '30 Law, president, Paul Carlile, '39Law, vice president, and Jack Agent, '31-'33, secretary-treasurer.

Roswell, New Mexico. Boyd Gunning, '37ba, '37Law, executive secretary of the Association, met with a group of Roswell, alumni for a showing of the 1950 Sugar Bowl film October 17.

McIntosh County. Alumni from McIntosh County met in Eufaula October 18 for a screening of the Sugar Bowl film and to present an application for alumni club charter to Guy Brown, Norman alumni representative. Following the film officers were elected. Those chosen were Louis K. Sharpe, '42bus, Checotah, Lee A. Cowling, Jr., '40-'42, Eufaula, and Kenneth W. Lackey, '50, Eufaula, secretary-treasurer.

Haskell County. An organizational meeting of Haskell County Alumni was held at the Municipal Building in Stigler. Guy Brown represented the Norman office and the Sugar Bowl film was viewed once more. The application for charter was presented after the club had elected officers. Those named for executive spots were Herschel E. Smith, '50m.ed, president, Lillian Riley, '42m.ed, vice president, and William A. Reynolds, '48-'49, secretary-treasurer.

Henryetta. The Henryetta Alumni Club held an October 24 meeting with more than 50 alumni present. George Cummings met with the group. No new officers were elected. Those presently serving are Dr. Carlton E. Smith, '30bs, '32bs in med, '34 med, president, Nicholas Hamra, '27-'28, vice president, and M. S. Douglass, Jr., '38 ba, '38Law, secretary-treasurer.

Tulsa County. Tulsa Alumni clubbers met October 25 to view the Texas-O.U. football film. More than 250 members of the club were on hand for the movie and a short business meeting that followed. George Cummings represented the alumni office. Officers elected for the coming year were Ralph Bogart, '36Law, Preston Woodruff, '34ba, '36Law, '37ma, vice president, and Hal Cumberland, '47bus, secretarytreasurer.

Washington County. The fall meeting of the Washington County Alumni Club was held November 1 in Bartlesville. The Texas-O.U. film found a receptive audience. Boyd Gunning and Guy Brown attended the meeting. Officers in charge of the meeting were Mark G. Meister, '38Law, '38ba, president of the club, and Gene Weirich, '22geol, vice president.

Denver. Fifty alumni met at the Blue Parrot Inn in Denver, November 3 on the eve of the O.U.-Colorado football game. On Saturday morning preceding the game a buffet luncheon was served to alumni attending the game in Boulder. Several Norman visitors attended the Denver meeting including President Cross, Bud Wilkinson, D. H. Grisso, '30geol, president of the Alumni Association, and Gunning. The meeting was under the direction of club president H. B. Kniseley, '26ba, '29ma, vice president John H. Tippit, '38ba, '40Law, and Carter B. King, Jr., '45eng, secretarytreasurer.

Pittsburg County. November 6 was a big night for Pittsburg County alumni. At a dinner meeting at the McAlester Country Club, the alumni group was presented with a charter. President George L. Cross and Alumni Secretary Boyd Gunning were on hand for the meeting as were more than 125 Pittsburg County alumni. Club officers that accepted the charter were Dr. C. E. Lively, '30phc, '30bs, '34bs in med, '34med, president, Howard Cowan, '31-'32, vice president, and Lloyd Puckett, '37bus, secretary-treasurer.

Chicago. A reorganizational meeting of the Chicago Alumni Club was held November 8 in the Morrison Hotel in Chicago. Paul MacMinn, dean of students at the University and currently on leave at Northwestern University, addressed the group and the Sugar Bowl film was unwound. Refreshments were served. Executive Board Meets

The annual Homecoming meeting of the Oklahoma Alumni Association executive board was held Saturday morning, October 21, in the Union Building—followed by the board's annual Homecoming luncheon.

Three new members were elected to the board to fill terms vacated by resignations or deaths.

Judge Royce Savage, '25ba, '27Law, Tulsa, was named to serve on the board to fill the unexpired term of the late Bradford Risinger, '23ba, Sand Springs, who died in August. Dr. Dan Procter, '36m.ed, '43d.ed, Chickasha, will complete the term of vice president of the board, a position also held by Risinger for the past several years. Ralph Enix, '36pharm, Kingfisher, was elected to the board from District VI to replace Rolland Nash, '41bus, who moved out of the district from Watonga to Oklahoma City. Ed Fleming, '14, Enid, was named to the board from District VIII. He fills the position vacated by Harry Hughes, '29ba, '48 m.cd, who is on active duty with the 45th.

A. B. Imel, '14ba, Cushing, was named to replace Roy Stewart, '31ba, Oklahoma City, who resigned to go into active duty with the 45th infantry division, on the Board of Directors of the Alumni Development Fund.

The unexpired term of Hal Muldrow, Jr., '28 bus, now commanding general of the 45th division artillery, on the Athletic Council was filled by Mart Brown, '29Law, who was elected by mail ballot.

'33Law, president, and David Gish, '37fa, were present at the Tillman County meet.
