

The first delivery of a lengthy correspondence of "out-going-mail" addressed to the Chinese Reds from Korea, compliments of Oklahoma's 45th Division, gets assist from Lt. Col. J. C. Breedlove, '32, Muldrow, and Lt. Col. C. W. Cleverdon, '33bus, Okla. City.

Signs of the Times

Vernie E. Harris, '40ba, '40law, has been recalled to active duty with the U. S. Navy and is now stationed at Kodiak, Alaska, where he is base legal officer.

Capt. Clifton E. Hughes, '48law, is now on duty at Shaw Airforce Base, Sumter, South Carolina.

Maj. David L. Field, '38ba, '40law, former county attorney at Hobart and Enid, has been assigned to the Air Judge Advocates Office at Headquarters, United States Airforce in Europe in Wiesbaden, Germany.

Fayette Copeland, Jr., '51journ, Norman, has been promoted to editor of the North Islander, a weekly newspaper published for personnel of the U. S. Naval Air Station, San Diego, California.

Maj. James W. Darden, '41eng, assistant professor of military science and tactics at the University, was granted a 4-month leave of absence from his duties to attend the command and general staff college at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Major Darden returned to the United States in August, 1951, following a tour of duty in Korea.

Capt. Rowe Guest, '36-'40, Norman, commander in Japan of the Headquarters and Service Company, 120th Engineer Battalion, 45th Division, has arrived home from Hokkaido, Japan, following his discharge from the armed forces.

Lt. Robert D. Allen, '51ba, completed the Military Police Company officer course at the Provost Marshall General's School, Camp Gordon, Georgia, December 19. He has been assigned to Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

William R. Moore, '32journ, Associated Press reporter since 1937 has been killed in Korea. His picture was hung January 12 in the press memorial lounge at the Pentagon building, Washington, D. C. Moore was a Daily Oklahoman reporter for a short time after graduation.

Col. Wilbur Wilson, '33ba, '34law, Norman, former commander of the Ranger Training School, Fort Benning, Georgia, has been named commanding officer of the Ninth Infantry Regiment in Korea.

Lt. James Murray Henry, '50bs, Oklahoma City, recently completed eleven months of service with the Eighth Army in Korea where he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal. Lt. Henry received his discharge at Fort Sill.

Lt. Col. Garrett L. Hill, Jr., '36-'39, Norman, has been awarded the Legion of Merit for outstanding service in Korea. Col. Hill, his wife, and two children are now living in Yokohama, Japan.

Capt. Robert W. Gilardi, '49bus, Oklahoma City, has been reported wounded in Korean action by the defense department. He was recalled to active duty in the Marine Air Reserve last March and has been in Korea since August.

Lt. Col. J. L. Farmer, '38eng, Norman, who is ordnance officer with the 45th Division, was in the advance party that went into Korea on Thanksgiving Day and has been on the front line since the division went into combat.

Lt. Col. H. P. Rice, '40m.ed, Norman, is commanding officer of the 171st Field Artillery Battalion now stationed in Korea. His unit is the first of its kind to be used in the Korean fighting.

Lt. Warren G. Shimeall, '50Law, former Woodward attorney, recently completed an eight-week special course at the judge advocate general Training School, Charlottesville, Virginia, and has returned to Fort Hood, Texas.

Lt. Col. Winston A. Jones, '31-'36, is commanding officer of the 201st Armored Field Artillery Battalion now on duty in Dachau, Germany. The National Guard Bureau in Washington recently reported that Colonel Jones was the "only living descendent" of the original eight companies that first formed the Army on June 14, 1775. The 201st is also the only known unit today that displays both Union and Confederate streamers in its battle flag.