

Signs of the Times

Lt. Col. Clifford C. Hines, '34, Norman, recently graduated from the Army's General Staff course at the Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Formerly he was stationed at Camp Carson, Colorado, where he was commanding officer of the 537th Field Artillery Battalion.

Lt. Carlie C. Long, Jr., '51bs, Pauls Valley, is currently attending a three months medical course at the Fort Sam Houston medical center, San Antonio, Texas.

Lt. Robert N. Chaddock, '51journ, Oklahoma City, is presently on duty in Yokohama, Japan.

John R. Redman, '51eng, was recently promoted to the rank of 1st lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers. Lt. Redman is now on duty with the Seventh Infantry Division in Korea.

Lt. Billie Robin Johnson, '48ba, WAF, has been assigned to the seventh class of the Unit Commanders and Adjutants School, Headquarters, Japan Air Defense Force, where she is taking classes in squadron administration, leadership, field and combat problems, squadron supply and small arms training. On completion of this course, Lt. Johnson will return to her duties as commanding officer of the 1st WAF Squadron with the Far East Airforce.

Pvt. Arnold H. Ismach, '51journ, New York City, was recently assigned to the Public Information Office of the 2nd Armored Division in Germany.

Major Ernest V. Cameron, '37-'42, Nowata, recently completed Operation Logex-52 at Camp Pickett, Virginia. This exercise was designed to train administrative forces in the supply, transportation, and communication problems of a theoretical army of a half-million men. Major Cameron is now on duty as a unit umpire at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland.

Capt. E. W. Bradshaw, Jr., '35-'40, has been assigned as a project officer at Redstone Arsenal, the key Ordnance Corps

Lt. Col. Roy H. Steele, '32Law, Shawnee, has been named staff judge advocate for the 1st Infantry Division in Germany. Colonel Steele will handle all of the division's legal matters in the future.

rocket and guided missile center near Huntsville, Alabama.

Lt. Walter F. Daniel, '48-'51, Oklahoma City, is stationed at Luke Airforce Base, Arizona, where he is training in fighter-bomber tactics.

Gerald D. Patterson, '50eng, Oklahoma City, petty officer first class, is now on duty as an instructor at the U. S. Fleet Sonar school in San Diego, California.

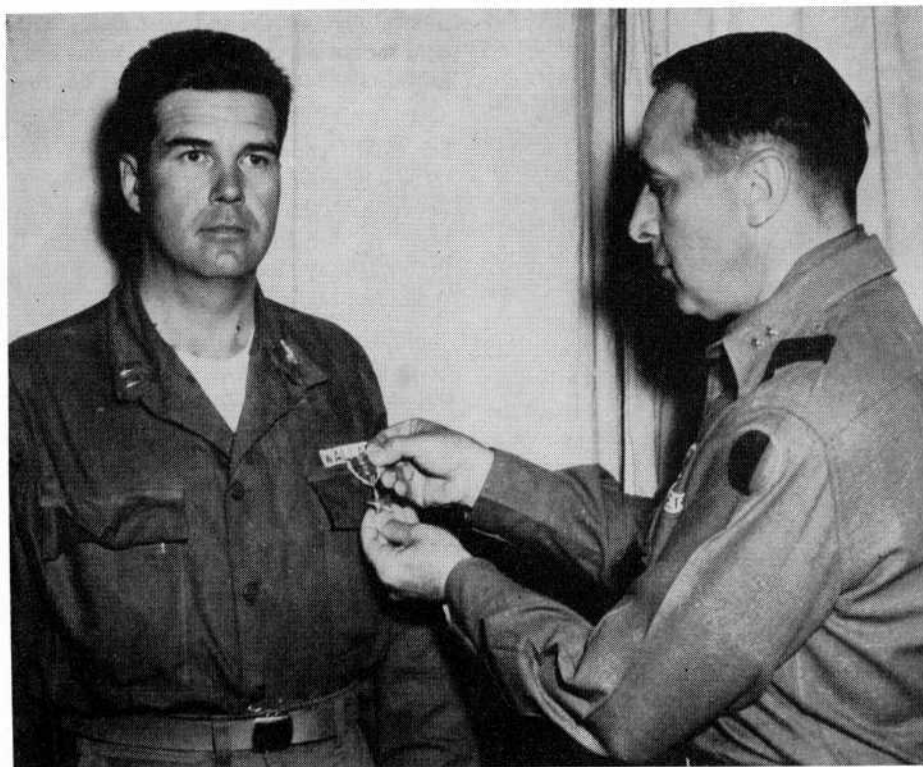

Cpl. Richard Alexander Hazlewood, '49-'51, Oklahoma City, has been assigned to Biggs Airforce Base, El Paso, Texas. Cpl. Hazlewood is a member of the 97th Aviation squadron.

Cpl. Conley Higdon, '50journ, Walters, has been named editor of the 45th Division News in Korea. Higdon had been a reporter for the paper since the division was mobilized.

Sgt. Riley W. Wilson, '50journ, former Norman Transcript sports editor, was recently assigned by the army to go to the atomic bomb testing grounds in Nevada as a reporter.

Kenneth E. Lampkin, Jr., '38-'42, Oklahoma City, was lost at sea in March, 1951, when he had to ditch his navy plane off the coast of Italy. Some of the crew members were picked up by a passing ship, but Lampkin was listed among those missing. The Navy Department recently declared him dead by accidental drowning. Lampkin is survived by his mother, Oklahoma City.

Pvt. Robert J. Glendening, '51bus, has been selected by the army to attend the Chemical Corps Officer's Candidate School at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Capt. William R. Wallace, '41Law, Oklahoma City, is shown receiving the Bronze Star for meritorious service as assistant staff judge advocate of 7th Infantry Division in Korea. Presenting the award is division commander, Maj. Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer.