

New York Holds A TV Party

NEW YORK CITY ALUMNI held a TV party for the O.U.-Notre Dame game. Helping with the registration were Bill Wilson, '39bus, club treasurer, Mrs. Wilson, Mary Jean Wiggins, Carole Everts, Russell Black, '42ba, past president, and Bob Danielson, '43bus, current president.

More than 100 New York Sooners turned out for a TV party November 8 to watch the Big Red in action against Notre Dame. Pictures present the highlights of the alumni meeting.
