The Cover. Special cover was result of competition in Assistant Professor Eugene Bavinger's advanced art class. Many of the entries were top-flight, but artist Ferdinand Richardson's unique design paced the field. The art students were assigned the project of producing a cover that would convey an impression of the students at O.U. The Editorial Board believed that the feeling of motion, restlessness and activity demonstrated in Richardson's work accomplished the assignment best. For examples of the top three contenders for the honor and cash award, see pages 2-3. Artist is pictured above.
