

Clubs from Coast to Coast Hold Meetings

Alumni clubs of the University of Oklahoma from Washington, D. C., to San Francisco, California, met during the past two months.

From the East Coast came a report of a TV party held October 10 in Washington to view the nationally telecast Texas-O.U. football game. Lyman Bryan, '48journ, and Al Cromley, Daily Oklahoman staffer in Washington, were co-chairmen of the event. In a letter to club members, President Don Eaton, '47-'49, notified them that the club was planning a special observance of its 10th anniversary March 15.

From the West Coast came word of a meeting of the San Francisco and Bay area alumni club November 12. Savoie Lottinville, '29ba, director of the University Press, met with the group. Lottinville spoke and showed films of O.U.'s sixtieth anniversary celebration. George Penney, '28-'30, was in charge of arrangements for the dinner meeting.

And from points in between came notices of other meetings. Philadelphia area alumni met for their second annual business meeting at the DuPont Country club October 25. Dr. Eldon S. Magaw, '28ba, '31 Law, president, presided. New officers were elected. Paul Barton, '19bs, was chosen president; Edgar W. Fielding, '14ba, vice president, and Mrs. Sara Hobbs Cordell, '32ba, secretary-treasurer. A loan fund, designated as the Delaware Valley Student Loan Fund, was established by the group. The fund is being deposited with the Alumni Development Fund of O.U. for use by students at O.U. coming from an area that includes parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey and all of Delaware.

The alumni club of Topeka-Lawrence, Kansas, area held a meeting November 13 in the Union building of Washburn University, Topeka. Ed Goldsmith, '49bus, president, was in charge of the meeting. The O.U.-Kansas football film was shown and officers were elected. They are Thomas Barker, '25bs, '38m.ed, president; Esther

Continued page 25

THE NORTH PLAINS OF TEXAS Alumni club met October 27 in Borger. L. C. Keaton, '45eng, club president, was in charge of the meeting. Shown above are some of the North Plains alumni who attended. Guy Brown, '42ba, '48ma, assistant alumni secretary, met with the group.

LIBERAL, KANSAS, ALUMNI met October 26 to receive their charter as an alumni club. In attendance were (f. r.) Mrs. Mary Hanson, '47-'48, club secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Granville McElroy; Mrs. C. Ross Shirley; (b. r.) George Hanson, '50geol; C. Ross Shirley, '51pharm, and Granville McElroy. McElroy was elected president of the southwestern Kansas alumni club.

SAN FRANCISCO ALUMNI CLUB met November 12. Savoie Lottinville, '29ba, director of the University Press, spoke to the group. He is shown at the dinner meeting with Dick Pearce, '31ba, left, and Clarence A. Cooley, '17, club president, right, both residents of San Francisco.

WHEN GUY BROWN, '42ba, '48ma, assistant secretary of the Alumni Association, visited in Guymon in November he stopped by the home of Vincent Dale, '33, and Mrs. Dale. The Dales are seen in their home, displaying some of the art work that is bringing Dale public attention.

home at Fort Hood, Texas, where Lieutenant Williams is stationed with the armed forces.

BARNETT-BATES: Miss Kay Eleanor Barnett,
Hollis, became the bride of William Gordon Bates,
'53geol, Tulsa, October 30 in the First Christian Church, Norman. After a trip to Colorado Springs, the couple is now at home in Norman.

John P. Graham, '53d.ed, was erroneously reported to be head of the music department of the Troy, Alabama, highschool in the October issue of Sooner Magazine. He is head of the music department at the college there.

Rex E. Cheek, '53eng, has joined Ball Associates, Oil and Gas Consultants in Washington, D.
C., and is making his home in Arlington, Virginia.
Cheek was the recipient of a Stanolind Oil and Gas Company Fellowship Award for the 1952-53

academic year, and under the terms of this award
he completed a research project entitled "Fluid Mapper In Secondary Recovery of Petroleum."

DARROUGH-LOGAN: Miss Dorothy Darrough,
'52ba, Oklahoma City, became the bride of James Duke Logan, '53ba, Norman, October 31 in St.
Luke's Methodist Church, Oklahoma City. After a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Arkansas, the couple is now at home in Norman.

Donald G. Atkins, '53journ, is editor of Ground Accident Digest, restricted quarterly publication issued at Tinker Airforce Base, Oklahoma City, in the interest of promoting safety. Atkins has been employed in safety promotion at the base for more than a year. His work includes writing news and features for other publications at the base and teaching orientation classes for new employees.

Alumni Clubs . . .

Turvey, '19ba, '19fa, vice president, and Avis Stoll, '39ba, secretary-treasurer.

Liberal, Kansas, alumni met October 26 to receive a club charter. Guy Brown, '42 ba, '48ma, assistant alumni secretary, attended the dinner meeting and presented the charter. Officers of the club are Granville McElroy, '49pharm, president; Clyde Towery, '51eng, vice president, and Mrs.
Mary Hanson, '47-'48, secretary-treasurer.

The North Plains of Texas Alumni club met October 27 in Borger. Club President L. C. Keaton, '45eng, was in charge of the meeting.

Your Biography Is Needed

The Alumni Records Office is microfilming the 40,000 files of graduates and former students. To provide the most accurate information, alumni are urged to complete the form below and on the following page so that the microfilmed files will be as complete as possible. You will help us, if you will send your biographical material to the Alumni Office, University of Oklahoma, Norman, as quickly as possible.

For Permanent Microfilmed File

Full name (exactly as it appears in University Records) _____

If married woman, give present name _____

If married, give husband's or wife's name, if former O.U. student _____

Degrees you received from O.U. and years received _____

Degrees received from other institutions _____

Activities when a student in O.U. (Membership in social and honorary fraternities, student publication staff, stage presentations, student government, class activities, clubs, any kind of positions held, awards or honors received—any interesting phases of student career:

(Please turn page to complete form)