Orange Bowl Film Playing to Full Houses

Alumni Clubs throughout Oklahoma and out-of-state are witnessing the 7-0 Bowl win with no indication of a let-up in interest or enthusiasm.

JESS WESNER, '27Law, president of the Washita County Alumni club, and Mrs. Wesner, chat with University Vice President Pete McCarter after February 23 meeting of club in Cordell.

Alumni club activity throughout late January, February and early March increased with the main interest catcher the 1954 Orange Bowl film. Everyone wanted a repeat performance of the O.U. victory. The fact that many had seen the game on television was no deterrent.

Wilburton. An organizational meeting was held January 23 for Latimer County alumni in Wilburton. George Giacomo, '36, and Sam Goldberg, '21, were in charge of arrangements. Officers elected include Giacomo, president; I. C. Gunning, '35 m.ed, vice president, and E. B. Hamilton, '24-'25, secretary-treasurer. Orange Bowl film was shown.

Clinton. Kiowa County alumni met February 15 in Clinton for a short business session and to hear All-American J. D. Roberts. Mitch Simon, '27-'41, and Charles Engleman, '33ba, were in charge of the meeting. Orange Bowl film completed the program.

Cordell. Washita County Alumni club received its charter at a meeting February 23 in Cordell. Judge Weldon Ferris, '29ba, '31Law, Altus, Alumni Executive Board member, made the presentation. Dr. Pete McCarter, vice president of the University,
