

insurance Managers. The Selmans have four children, Billy, 9, Bobby, 7, Lynda, 5, and Charles, 2.

Mrs. Melba Cates Shackelford, '36bfa, is a housewife living in Ardmore. She has one son, Robert, 6.

'37 Woodrow B. Arnn, '37bus, is a Certified Public Accountant, and a partner in the firm of Billups, Wood and Mascho, in Oklahoma City. He and Mrs. Arnn have three children, Terry B., 10, Stephen K., 5, and James T., 1.

Mrs. June Tompkins Benson, '37ba, '54ma, whose husband is O.U. government Professor Oliver Benson, '32ba, '33ma, received her Master of Arts degree in June.

King Denzil Boyd, '37eng, and Mrs. Boyd, the former Eleanore Norman, '41bs, are living in Bellaire, Texas. They have two children. Boyd is engaged in the petroleum sales business and has been the recipient of the W. T. Crowe Award given by General Motors for two years.

James A. Embry, Jr., '37ba, is vice-president and general manager of Machine Tool and Supply Co. in Tulsa. He and Mrs. Embry, the former Betty Lou Clark, '39ba, have two children, Susan, 10, and Jimmy, 7.

Mrs. Mary Alice Murray Mason, '37bus, is employed as a bookkeeper in Hobbs, New Mexico. She and her husband have two children, James Jay, 4, and Mary Kay, 2.

Holland E. Meacham, '37ba, '40m.ed, Mrs. Meacham, Marilyn, 9, and Marlene, 6, are at home at 1007 W. 3rd, Elk City. Meacham is an attorney.

Anthony G. Meyers Jr., '37-'38, is engaged in building, land development, and real estate business in Oklahoma City in addition to being president of A. G. Meyers Investment Co., Inc. Meyers, Mrs. Meyers, and Linda Ann, 5, live at 3838 Springlake Drive, Oklahoma City.

James J. Stansell, '37ba, '38ma, is associate professor of speech and Chairman of the Department of Speech and Drama at Los Angeles State College, Los Angeles, California.

Mareta Nelle West, '37bs, is employed as a subsurface petroleum geologist in Oklahoma City. Miss West is a member of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the Oklahoma City Geological Society.

'38 Lawrence F. Bellati, '32-'38, has been named state safety commissioner for Oklahoma by Governor Johnston Murray. Bellati is associated with the Stillwater News-Press in addition to being manager of radio station, KSPI, in Stillwater.

Walter J. Gilbreath, '38bs, has a hardware and implement store in Apache. He and Mrs. Gilbreath have three sons, Paul Kermit, 11, Victor, 10, and Walter, seven months.

David C. Matthews, '38ba, '42Law, Mrs. Matthews, and their three children, David V., 8, Frances Ann, 7, and Jean Corrine, 6, are living in Perry, where Matthews is an attorney.

Sam Sullivan, '38Law, is district judge for the Nineteenth Judicial District of Oklahoma.

'39 Alford J. Barron, '39ma, '51m.ed, is superintendent of Forestburg High School in Forestburg, Texas. He and Mrs. Barron, the former Leona Stamps, '39ma, have one son, Alford, 10.

Mrs. Virginia Doss Carr, '39ed, is secretary-treasurer of Crown Drilling Co., in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Carr has two children, Raymond E. Jr., 18, and Nancy, 14.

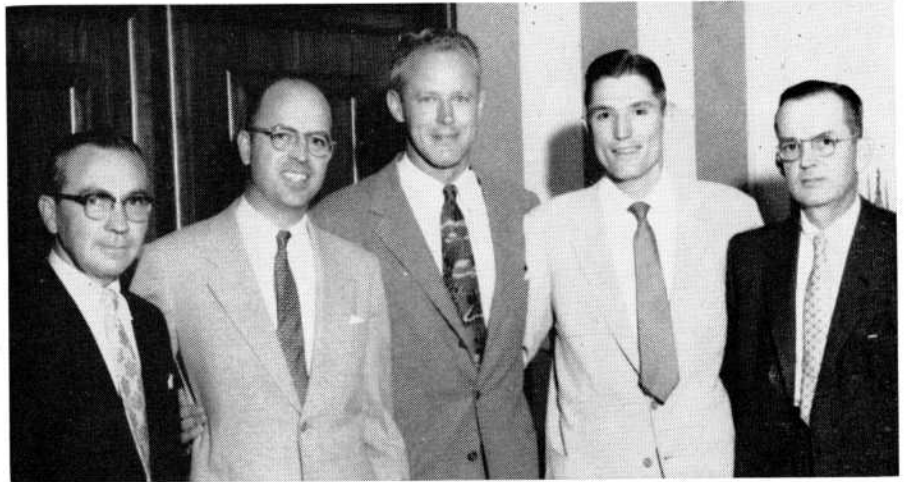

Catching Up with the Clubs

With the summer nearly over, alumni club activities began to pick up steam. The Dallas alumni are again planning a giant dinner-dance before the O.U.-Texas game; San Francisco area alumni will be having their Oklahoma breakfast by the time this magazine is off the press as an introduction to the O.U.-California game and other alumni football parties are in the offing.

Held over from late spring meetings were the pictures and reports of club meetings presented below and on the following page. Two clubs held meetings of which no pictures were available. They were . . .

The Jackson County Alumni club met May 25 in Altus for a dinner meeting and to hear Bud Wilkinson. Paul Flippin, '39journal, club president, presided. Boyd Gunning, '37ba, '37Law, alumni executive secretary, also attended the meeting.

Tillman County alumni met May 12 in Frederick for an afternoon reception. Coach Gomer Jones and Gunning attended from Norman. David Gish, '37fa, former executive board member, and Howard McBee, '20ba, '41Law, both of Frederick, were in charge.

Nearly 300 Sooners crammed the Mayo Hotel ballroom for a dinner meeting of Tulsa County Alumni Club May 13. Speakers were Coach Bud Wilkinson, Dean Earl Sneed, '34ba, '37Law, of O. U. Law School; Judge Royce Savage, '25ba, '27Law, then president of the Alumni Association; and Boyd Gunning, '37ba, '37Law, executive secretary of the Association. Shown with Judge Savage (extreme left) and Wilkinson (center) are the three Tulsa alumni who arranged the meeting—John Stambaugh, '36bus; Bobby Goad, '50bs, '50m.ed, and Bill Sinclair, '30.

Carter County Alumni met May 14 at Ardmore's Country Club for a dinner meeting. Principal speaker was Coach Gomer Jones. O. U. Regent Quintin Little made a brief address. New officers were elected. Pictured above are Martin Cassity, '37-'39, immediate past president; Fred Collins, '45bs, '48Law, new president; Jones; Mrs. Ann Williams Riddle, '49, secretary-treasurer, and Bill Jennings, '49bs, '51Law, club vice president from Healdton.

Catching Up with the Clubs

The Chicago Alumni Club held their annual Sooner Club dinner May 5 in Chicago's Tower Club. Coach Bud Wilkinson, shown talking with a part of the party group, was special guest. New officers elected at the meeting were Ervin Brown, '29ba, president; Homer Heck, '35, vice president; W. Ben Flanigin, '44eng, treasurer; Bete Mitchell, '44ba, secretary, and Don Hockstein, '50journ, elected to serve as the club's public relations officer.

Among those attending the Chicago meeting were Dr. Robert J. Overstreet, '49bs, '53med; Dr. Perry F. Crawford, '53med; Harry Powell, '10eng; Ervin Brown, '29ba; Mrs. Harry Powell, and Bob Yoder, '44ba. The Chicago group witnessed movie of '53 Notre Dame game.

Members of the Oklahoma University Club of Washington, D. C., observed the club's 10th anniversary May 8 with a buffet and dance attended by 100 Sooners. Officers were elected at the meeting. Old and new officers posed for cameraman Robert R. Rose, '49journ. They are William R. High, '31ba, new pres.; Lt. Comdr. Richard L. Long, '42ba, new veep; Edmund R. Clark, '50ba, old treasurer; Don Eaton, '47-'49, past pres.; Joe S. Wallace, '41ba, '43Law, incoming treasurer. New secretary, Mrs. Ruth Ireland Kneel, '41ba, could not attend the meeting.

Billy L. Clayton, '39bus, owns a cotton gin and feed store in Holdenville.

Walter P. Dornaus, '39Law, and Mrs. Dornaus, the former Aragene Lane, '39Law, are living in Tulsa, where he is chief counsel for Kewanee Oil Company.

Melvin Land, '37-'39, is practicing dentistry in Dallas, Texas, in addition to being a graduate student in clinical psychology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

Clare C. Smith, '39bus, is a partner in the firm of Herbert F. Schiff and Co., Certified Public Accountants, in Oklahoma City. He and Mrs. Smith, the former Ramona Mae Shaw, '29, have two children, Marilyn Sue, 14, and James Roy, 12.

James Howard Waddle, '39eng, is General Manager of McKamie Gas Cleaning Company in Magnolia, Arkansas. He and Mrs. Waddle, the former Inez Crotto, '37-'39, have four children, James Jr., 14, William, 12, John S., 11, and Marc, 4.

'40 G. Turner Armstrong, '40eng, Mrs. Armstrong, Patti, 5, and Janice Kay, 1, are living in Dallas, Texas. Armstrong is regional manager for Electrical Well Services, Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co.

Dr. Charles E. Cook, Jr., '40bs, '42med, is a physician and surgeon in Oklahoma City. He and Mrs. Cook have three children, Jeanne Anne, 10, Chuck, 6, and Betty Ruth, 4.

L. W. Goudy, '40bs, was recently appointed district geologist for Stanolind Oil and Gas Company's Kansas exploration district. Goudy has been associated with Stanolind since 1940.

John H. Halley Jr., '40ba, '47Law, and Mrs. Halley are at home at 2615 N. W. 26th St., Oklahoma City. They have four children, Alice, 12, John H. III, 11, William, 7, and James, 2. Halley is practicing law in Oklahoma City.

J. Paul Johnson, '40Law, is a partner in the firm of Duffy and Johnson, attorneys, in Ponca City. He and Mrs. Johnson have two children, Penny, 6, and Paula, 4.

Tom E. Morton, '40eng, and Mrs. Morton, the former Frankie Davis, '40m.ed, have recently moved to Los Angeles, California, where he is division manager of Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. They have five children, Tom, 11, Sally, 9, Mike, 6, Ben, 3, and Mary, 2.

Warren G. Myers, '38-'40, Mrs. Myers, and Gail Ann, 1, are living in Norman, where Myers is manager of Adams Grocery. Their home is at 325 E. Comanche.

Richard P. Ryan, '40Law, Denver, attorney for Carter Oil Company, was recently transferred to Billings, Montana, where he will supervise legal activities for Carter.

Hanks Spikes, '40pharm, is a partner in the Spikes Drug Store, Crossett, Arkansas. In 1953, Spikes was voted "King of Courtesy" by the Arkansas Drug Travelers Association. He and Mrs. Spikes have two children, Beverly Gail, 4, and Pamela Ann, 2.

'41 Harbert F. Boester, '41eng, has been promoted to district manager of South Texas for Garrett Oil Tools, Inc., Corpus Christi. Mrs. Boester is the former Eunice Busby, '45bfa. The couple has two sons, Chuck, 7, and Ken, 16 months.

James E. Fox, Jr., '41eng, formerly of Tulsa, has been named drilling research engineer of Stanolind Oil and Gas Company's Fort Worth, Texas office.

Dr. Francis W. Hollingsworth, '41bs, '42ba, '44 med, is a resident in surgery in the Veterans Administration Hospital, Oklahoma City. He and Mrs. Hollingsworth, the former Almarian Berch, '42bs, have two children, Susan, 7, and Alan, 4.

Eddie F. Jabara, '41bus, is managing a depart-