

Girl who has ALWAYS wanted her picture in the CHRISTMAS Issue of SOONER Magazine just alas

Love for Dinner

Watchbird watching a Legal Eagle

BRANHAM

what a card!

Up in the nice, modern offices of Hallmark cards in Kansas City, Missouri, there sits a nice-looking man with a nice smile and a nice pen in his hand. That nice man is Don Branham, a 1955 Marketing graduate of O.U. What he draws is anything but nice—it's outrageous! It's shocking! It's hilarious.

Branham is the pride and joy of Hallmark's booming contemporary card department, and he's recently sold two full-page cartoons to Esquire and two to SOONER, we're happy to add.

Here they are on these two pages. He's entitled them "Memories of O.U."

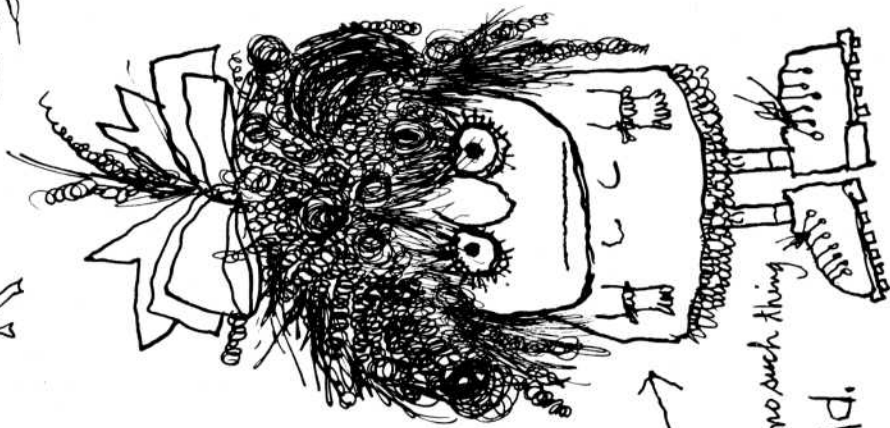

← Typical Example of Architecture at University of Oklahoma (Chinese Gothic, in case you'd forgotten)

Unhatched Football Hero

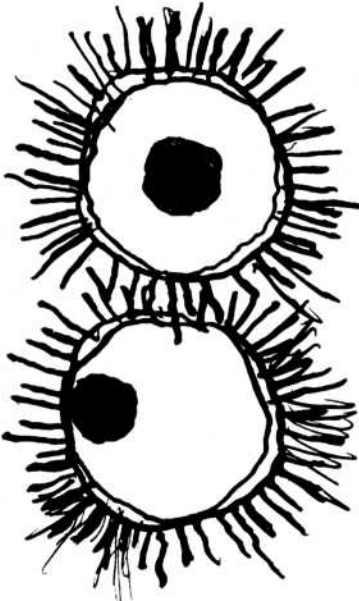

MAD SCIENTIST who never got his Degree and is working on a BOMB To Teach Them a Lesson.

Girl who, after singing "Boomer Sooner," for the last seven years, has just discovered there is no such thing as SOONER BROADCAST.

DON L. BRANHAM, JR.

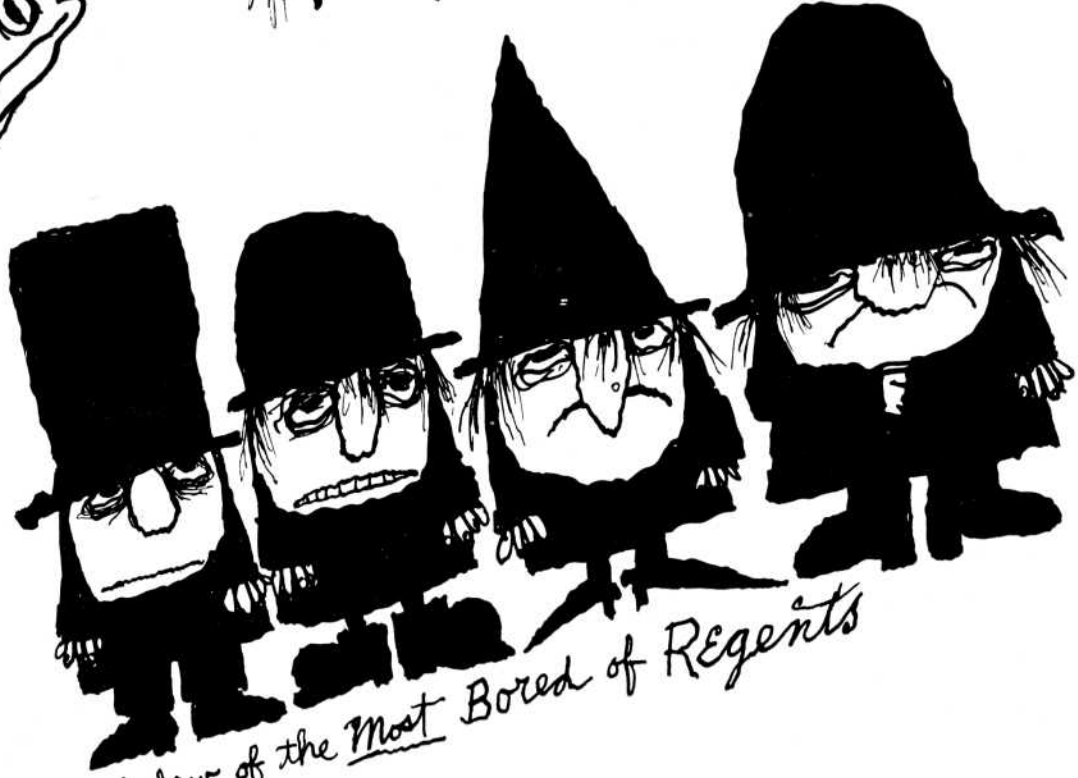

The awesome Eyes of Texas

Person who has a 3-year-old car that will not start and just got a new car.

Person who quite frankly wishes he was still in school yet.

A few of the Most Bored of Regents