CONTENTS

The Cover. A living monument to the Indians of the Southwestern Plains is also a thriving tourist attraction near Anadarko. Indian City, U.S.A., was born of the enthusiastic efforts of Anadarko's citizens and the know-how of the University of Oklahoma. The pictograph being painted here on a buffalo hide in the Pawnee house is typical of the attention to detail given the re-creation of a by-gone way of life. See A Page from the Past on Page 4.

Association Membership. Any former student who completed satisfactorily one or more semesters at the University is eligible for membership. Annual membership, $5.00; Life Membership, $80.00, payable $5.00 down and $5.00 quarterly.

CORE OF THE PROBLEM

O.U. is setting the pace in engineering education with a more efficient, new "core" curriculum.

THE MISSILE AND THE MAN

A Sooner engineer has the complicated job of getting the mighty Titan ICBM off the launching pad.

THE FADING FACE OF SUMMER

Summertime O.U. has an aura all its own—hot weather, slow pace, casual dress—and faces that are refreshingly new and different.

FOOTBALL FORECAST

No September Sooner Magazine would be complete without a pre-season look into Burr's crystal ball of football fact and prophecy.

YANKEES GO HOME

A Japanese Sooner answers some questions about anti-American riots in Tokyo.
