DR. E. T. DUNLAP, president of Eastern A&M College of Wilburton, has been named Chancellor for higher education in Oklahoma, succeeding Dr. M. A. Nash. Because of his outstanding service which has led to his new high state post, University National is pleased to announce his selection as "Distinguished Oklahoman of the Month" for January.

In addition to the DOM certificate, Dr. Dunlap will have the privilege of awarding a special University National scholarship to the state college of his choice. Dr. Dunlap's experience and background as an Oklahoma school man will enable him to do an outstanding job in the important Chancellor's role.
