

ROLL CALL of Alumni Newsmakers

Golden Days

This football hero could not have gone unnoticed by his classmates. His uniform places him in the early '20s, and Sooners of that era should be able to identify him. The story behind the May photo is on Page 19.

Roll Call:

news events in the lives of Sooner alumni

1898-09

Tom B. Matthews, '06ba, has retired from Amerada Petroleum Corporation, Tulsa.

A. Martin Kingkade, '06ba, is president and general manager of the Kingkade Hotel Company in Oklahoma City, and has been in the hotel business since 1927. Prior to that he was engaged in real estate-loan business for 20 years. His wife is the former Esther C. Kistner.

J. C. M. Kruntum, '09ba, '23ma, '36d.ed, is retired after 37 years as a college professor. He also served as superintendent and principal in public schools for five years, and as an assistant librarian in Oklahoma City for 2½ years. He resides in Norman.

DEATH: W. H. McCutchen, '98, died February 7 in Lawton.

1911

Walter B. Adams, Sr., '11med, operates an eye-ear-nose & throat clinic & hospital in Wichita Falls, Texas. He is in partnership with his son, Walter, Jr. Dr. Adams came to Wichita Falls in 1927. His son received his B.A. and M.D. from Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

Ursula Lamar Lillard, '11ba, is retired and lives in Tyler, Texas. She has taught school in the states of Oklahoma and Texas, and in New York City.

Ernest C. Lambert, '11, is an independent operator in real estate and oil in Okmulgee. Lambert was given wide recognition for his performances on O.U. basketball teams, and is a member of the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. He holds the individual scoring record of 47 points in one game, and the season record of 23.6 points per game.

Jacob K. Warkentin, '11ba, is retired and lives in Hillsboro, Kansas. He has four grandchildren. He was county clerk of Marion County, Kansas, for 20 years.

Wynn Ledbetter Pulley, '11ba, is retired and lives in Fort Worth, Texas. She has three grandsons.

Grace Lee Jochem, '11ba, '16ma, lives in Tulsa where she is a housewife. Before her marriage to A. N. Jochem she taught history and English in both Ardmore and Oklahoma City. She has two grandchildren.

Dr. Frank A. Balyeat, '11ba, '18ma, a professor emeritus of education at the University of Oklahoma, is also employed part-time by the Oklahoma Vocational Rehabilitation Division as a consultant on in-service training. Dr. Balyeat was a full-time member of the College of Education faculty at O.U. from 1927 until his retirement in 1956.

1913-15

Frank G. Howe, '13ba, '15Law, was listed in the 1961 edition of Who's Who in California. Howe, of Glendale, was also listed in the 1958 edition.

Raymond O. Courtright, Sr., '14ba, and Mrs. Courtright (Elizabeth Eagleton, '14ba) are retired and have their home in Cathedral City, California. They are spending the summer in Ann Arbor, Michigan, where Courtright at one time was on the University of Michigan athletic staff. While at O. U. Courtright was four-sport man, participating in football, baseball, basketball and track.

DEATH: Hazel Kelly Imel, '15-'16, died June 3 in Cushing. She was married in 1919 to Arthur

B. Imel. The couple moved to Cushing in 1928 from Blackwell and had lived there since that time. Surviving relatives include the husband; two sons, A. Blaine and John Michael, both of Tulsa; one half-brother, E. M. Kelly, Tulsa; two half-sisters, Mrs. Ella Kerns, Girard, Kansas; Mrs. L. P. Saunders, Pawnee; and five grandchildren of Tulsa.

1916-19

Zella Cralle Hybarger, '16ba, is now retired after teaching 37 years, most of that time in Norman. She is residing in Norman.

Paul Ward, '16Law, is an Arkansas Supreme Court judge in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Edna Demand, '16ba, is the owner and manager of the York Insurance Agency in Tulsa.

Dr. Maurice H. Merrill, '19ba, '22Law, conducted the Institute on Oil and Gas Law at the annual meeting of the Western Nebraska Bar Association, Alliance, Nebraska. He is a research professor of law at the University of Oklahoma.

1921

E. W. Henderson, '21chem, is with the U.S. Geological Survey and lives in New Orleans, Louisiana. He is oil and gas supervisor of the gulf coast region, department of interior.

William V. Cox, '21ba, '24ma, is superintendent of the Ponca Military Academy, Ponca City. The Coxes have one son, Wallace C. Cox, '48ba.

Hugh D. Southwick, '21ph.c, and Mrs. Southwick reside in Garber where Southwick is a partner in the Rexall Drug Store. He was a pharmacist in Kingfisher before coming to Garber in 1924. Southwick has been active in Rotary work for 36 years in Garber and is a 32nd degree Mason.

Robert H. Pool, '21ba, '22ma, has retired after having taught two years in Oklahoma and 38 years in Larned, Kansas, High School science department. He and Mrs. Pool (Clara Eichorn, '22bs) have since made their home in Altamont, Kansas.

1922-25

Edwin C. McReynolds, '22ba, '26ma, '44ph.d, who retired from teaching at O.U. at 70, spent the past year as "visiting professor" of history at Cottey College in Nevada, Missouri. Mrs. McReynolds remained at their home in Norman.

George A. Heap, '23eng, '29ms, and his wife (Billie Chapman, '23ba) have just returned to their home in Los Angeles, California, from a combined business and vacation trip in which they traveled over 6,000 miles and visited 10 states.

J. Tom Devanney, '25bs, is now in private practice as a certified public accountant in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Devanney and his wife (Thelma Jones, '27) formerly lived in Sayre.

DEATH: Dr. D. H. Duncan, '23med, died April 29 in Shreveport, Louisiana, of a heart attack. Dr. Duncan was a psychiatrist and neurologist on the staff of Highland Hospital. He was a member of many local, state and national medical groups. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alsie Duncan; one daughter, Alsie Lea; and two brothers, John D. Duncan, Lubbock, Texas; and Robert T. Duncan, San Antonio, Texas.

1926-29

Leo K. Hughes, '26ba, Oklahoma City is employed by Pure Oil Company as office manager in the Mid-Continent area office. He and Mrs. Hughes have two children, Sally, 27, and Leo, Jr., 18.

Col. Merton E. Munson, '29ba, '31Law, retired from the Army last June. He was returned to Lawton after spending a few months in Mexico City, Mexico. At the time of his retirement, Colonel Munson was professor of military science at Michigan State University, Lansing. His daughter, Mary Beth, is in school in Mexico City and his son, Merton, Jr., entered West Point last July.

DEATH: J. M. Ashton, '29ma, '33ph.d, died May 20 in an Oklahoma City hospital. Ashton, 80, had been prominent in Oklahoma political and economic affairs for more than a quarter of a century. Retired as manager of the Oklahoma State Chamber of Commerce in 1960, he was also a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, an engineer and a mathematician. Survivors include a niece, Mrs. Martha Vander Veer, Syossett, New York, and a brother, Dean, Sonoma, California.

DEATH: Dr. James O. Hood, '29bs, '31med, died May 5 in Oklahoma City, after an illness of several months. Dr. Hood had been director of the Student Health Service at O.U. from 1946 until his illness in December 1960. He was born March 9, 1907, at Breckenridge, Texas. Survivors include his widow Bessie of the home; two sons James O., Jr., and Robert S.; his mother, Mrs. J. B. Hood, and a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Ash, all of Norman. Dr. Hood came to O.U. after an outstanding record in the

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE
ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT
RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in
Bizzell Memorial Library

May's Golden Days Photo

Several sharp-eyed Sooners were quick to spot the two girls in the May Golden Days photo as half of the 1937 O.U. girls quartet. They are Elnora Davis, '38bfa, now Mrs. Walter M. Stewart of Seminole, and Anna Louise Meffert, '40bfa, who is Mrs. B. P. Howes of Beltsville, Maryland. The other half of this '37 musical ensemble was comprised of Christine Gilstrap, '37bfa, now Mrs. Ben E. Allen, and Elnora's sister, Ruth Davis Reaugh.

Vance Weldon, '41, and Mrs. Weldon (Charlotte Killingsworth, '41ba) of Tulsa named both girls correctly—identifications verified by Marvin Trope, '37, Lawton, and Col. Russell D. Hale, '38ba, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio.

Army. He was a lieutenant colonel in the 45th Infantry Division medical corps in the Mediterranean and European campaigns in World War II. He was decorated with the Bronze Star with an oak leaf cluster and a Purple Heart with an oak leaf cluster.

DEATH: Mrs. Esther Grimes Witcher, '29ba, '36Lib.sci, social sciences librarian at the University of Oklahoma, died May 8. Mrs. Witcher began her career as a librarian at Ardmore High School in 1929 and was later at Ponca City and Oklahoma City. In 1941 she was in Nashville, Tennessee, as the head of the library's circulation department. In 1946 she was with the University of Illinois library, and before coming to O.U. in 1948, she was head of the reference department at the University of Southern Illinois library. Surviving are her son, Lee Eldon, Jr., Norman, and a brother, Charles Grimes, Amarillo, Texas.

1931-33

Peter T. Herber, '31bus, is district office manager for Firestone Tire & Rubber Company in Peoria, Illinois.

Carl Fisher, '32bus, has been elected executive vice president of Pacific Indemnity Company, Los Angeles, California. Fisher, of Pasadena, has also been elected president of the Pacific Insurance and Surety Conference, a trade organization composed of over 50 prominent insurance companies doing business on the Pacific Coast.

Leslie Franklin Warren, '33bus, is presently assigned to the Los Angeles, California, office of the F.B.I. He has been a special agent with the F.B.I. since 1941. He and his wife reside in Pasadena and have four children.

Virginia I. Pattison, '33soc.wk, is currently employed as a regional medical social consultant with the Missouri State Crippled Children's Service.

Hal Muldrow Agency

'28

Insurance of All Kinds

Bonds

117 E. Comanche

Norman

Miss Pattison, who also has a master's degree from the University of Chicago, was formerly with the Oklahoma Department of Public Welfare and the Missouri General Hospital, Kansas City.

A. N. Griffith, '33eng, has returned from Tripoli, Libya, North Africa, to Norman. He has established a men's clothing store and his wife has established a women's apparel store in the new student shopping center on the Campus Corner.

DEATH: Ben Whittier Baker, '32ma, died June 25, 1960.

1934-35

M. F. MacDonald, '34bus, has been promoted to the newly-created post of principal assistant to the division general manager of Johns-Manville Corporation, New York City. MacDonald began his career with Johns-Manville in 1935 as a salesman in Chicago. He served as a lieutenant colonel in the Air Corps in World War II. He resides with his family in New Canaan, Connecticut.

Harry E. Moore, '34m.ed, is education representative for Crowell-Collier Publishing Co., Charles Scribner's Sons. Mrs. Moore (Allie Smith, '34ba, '36ma) is a librarian at Orville Wright Junior High School in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. John McAlister (Dorothy Keefe, '35bus) has been named an architectural-hardware consultant by the American Association of Architectural Consultants. Only 11 women in the U.S. hold this certification. John McAlister, '35ba, is president of McAlister Materials in Oklahoma City, a firm he and his wife started 12 years ago. She is secretary-treasurer and their son Bill, '61eng, is vice president.

Alice Lee Marriot, '35ba, has joined Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin, as a research associate in the Logan Museum of Anthropology. She has taught at the University of Oklahoma and has done extensive work at Stovall Museum.

DEATH: James L. Riley, '35ba, drowned June 14 in Grand Lake. Riley was cashier and vice president of the American National Bank of Bristow, and had been active in Bristow as a civic leader and in church affairs. He is survived by his wife, Betty, and three children.

1936

Marye B. Harrison, '36ma, has been teaching in the Oklahoma City school system since 1959. She previously taught in Ada High School, and later spent five years teaching under the Civil Service in South Dakota. From 1942 to 1958 she served as a civilian instructor for the Air Force, and in 1958 and 1959 taught at Gulf Park College, Gulfport, Mississippi.

Harold J. Hedges, '36fa, was one of those chosen to attend a recent logistical command refresher course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Hedges is a lieutenant colonel in the Army reserve and is operations officer of the 4259th Logistical Command, McAlester reserve unit. He is regularly employed as a teacher in the McAlester public schools.

Kenneth B. Klein, '36ba, has retired from the Air Force as a lieutenant colonel. He and his wife (Edith Larsen) are living in Midwest City.

Karey Fuqua, '36bus, has been hospital administrator for Southwestern Clinic Hospital, Incorporated, Lawton, since 1948. He and Mrs. Fuqua have two daughters, Patti Lynn, a sophomore at O.U., and Donna Kaye, a freshman at Colorado Woman's College.

Stewart Harral, '36ma, was recently re-elected to one of the seven vice presidencies of the American Public Relations Association at the annual meeting in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Harral, director of public relations studies at O.U., is the only teacher of public relations in the nation to serve on the council of professional practitioners.

1938-39

Edward O. Roe, '38eng, has accepted a position as development engineer with United Geophysical Corporation, Pasadena, California. Roe was formerly with Jersey Production Research, Tulsa. He and his wife, Marie, have three boys.

Col. David C. Matthews, '38ba, '42Law, Perry, acting chief of staff of the 45th Infantry Division, Oklahoma City Army National Guard unit, recently attended the seven-day National Guard division refresher course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

John C. Duke, '36-39, has been named resident camp director and district scout executive of the Yucca Council for the Boy Scouts of America. Duke's new headquarters will be at Camp Dale Resler, Cloudcroft, New Mexico. Duke has formerly been a district scout executive in Oklahoma

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library

City, and Waco and Port Arthur, Texas. He is a member of the Cloudcroft Presbyterian Church and Lions Club. Duke and his wife (Nadine Nabours, '38) have two daughters, Dian and Molly.

Lois Trueblood Walter, '39Lib.sci, is now in her 19th year as O.U. pharmacy librarian, and has been a resident of Norman since the death of her husband, Otto W. Walter, '20ba, '21bs, '26eng, in 1935. She has served as a class representative in the Alumni Development Fund campaign. Her son, O. Wallace II, '43, who is in charge of public documents at the State Library, is married and has two sons, David and Jimmy.

Woodrow Huddleston, '39eng, is moving to Barcelona, Spain, after a two-year temporary assignment at Jersey Production Research Company, Tulsa. Huddleston had spent 20 years with Creole Petroleum Corporation, a Standard Oil Company of New Jersey affiliate, in Venezuela.

1940-41

Grace Jackson Penney, '40ed, '53ma, was honored at an autographing party and tea during the June commencement activities at Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee. Mrs. Penney is a specialist in the educational materials services of the University's Extension Division and author of the two children's books Tales of the Cheyennes and Moki. She is a former public relations assistant at the Extension Division and has written articles for several magazines and newspapers in addition to her books for children.

Bryon P. Spears, '41eng, is a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force and is stationed at Littleton, Colorado. Since entering the Air Force in 1941, he has served as both a fighter and test pilot. Colonel Spears and his wife have three children.

Col. Ralph C. Tutor, '41chem, has been reassigned from the office of the Air Force Surgeon General, Air Force Headquarters, Washington, D. C., to the office of the Command Surgeon, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas. Colonel Tutor and his wife are both natives of Lawton, and have two children, Kevin, 10, and Mary Jane, 4.

Ralph W. Warkentin, '41eng, owns a franchise of Bruce Terminix Company in Houston, Texas. He and his wife have one son, Robert, 16.

1942-45

F. E. Hopkins, '42bus, has been made division accountant for Pan American Petroleum Corporation's North Texas-New Mexico division at Fort Worth, Texas. He has been with Pan American since 1946.

Raymond O. Courtright, Jr., '43eng, Midland, Texas, recently left for France to establish a permanent office for W. E. Stiles Engineering, Incorporated, Tulsa-based petroleum consulting and management firm. The Stiles firm recently signed a contract to provide full-time engineering and supervision for the integrated privately-owned French oil company, Petrorep. His wife (Mary Swanda, '42ed) and children have joined him in France.

John B. Baumert, '43bus, '48Law, was a member of the 13th class to attend the annual logistical command refresher course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Baumert is a McAlester lawyer and a major in the Army reserve, holding the position of adjutant of the 4259th Logistical Command, McAlester reserve unit. Baumert's wife is the former Suzanne Lovell, '48ba.

Corinne Elbert Feldman, '45ba, is now teaching in Long Beach, California, unified school district.

BIRTH: Clifford L. Marshall, '43, and Mrs. Marshall are the parents of a son born June 1 in Norman.

1947-49

Fayne Bumgarner Lutz, '47ba, is employed as camping and program director for Girl Scouts in Inglewood, California. Her husband is a pilot for Trans-World Airlines. They reside in Redondo Beach.

Carl E. Thain, '47eng, owner and manager of the C. E. Thain Company, Incorporated, McAlester, was one of 200 officers from 43 Army reserve logistical commands to be selected to attend the logistical command refresher course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. The training included the principles and techniques of administrative support provided by a communications zone for one or more field armies under conditions of active nuclear warfare. Thain is a lieutenant colonel in the Army reserve.

Charles D. Herndon, '49eng, is with Sandia Corporation-A.E.C. Military Liaison Services, in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Herndon has been with Sandia since 1955. He is in the reserves and was recently promoted to major. He and his wife have six boys and five girls.

BIRTH: Stan Stevens and Mrs. Stevens (Glory Hoke, '49ba) are the parents of a son, Gregory Hamilton, born last November in San Marino, California.

1950

William E. Reardon, '50bus, '53Law, is in investment securities with Minor, Mee & Co., and director for Shoprite Foods, Inc., of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Reardon and his wife (Vendla Wooten, '52bus) have three children, Mike, 7, Chuck, 1, and Kelly, 2 months.

J. D. Garrison, Jr., '50geol, recently attended the seven-day National Guard division refresher course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Garrison is a major and assistant chief of staff for intelligence of the 45th Infantry Division, Oklahoma City national guard unit. Garrison is regularly employed as a geologist by Amerada Petroleum Corporation and he and his wife live in Norman.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library

Major Charles R. Roberts, '50eng, completed the regular course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. The class contained 666 U.S. officers and 84 officers from 43 allied nations. Major Roberts entered the Army in 1950 and was stationed in Korea. He also hold a degree from the University of Illinois.

Robert True, '50eng, drilling manager and vice president of Big Chief Bolivian Drilling Company of La Paz, Bolivia, has moved from La Paz to the company's major field camp in Yacuiba. True and his wife have five children, Charles, Gene, Loretta, Jeanette and Diane.

BIRTH: Morton B. Stone, '50journal, and Mrs. Stone are the parents of a son, Matthew Laurance, born April 14.

1951

Charles L. Pugsley, '51Law, and Mrs. Pugsley (Geraldine Wrinkle, '46h.ec) live in Okmulgee where Pugsley is in private law practice. He was formerly with Shell Oil Company at Houston, Texas. The couple has three children, Janet, 9, Carolyn, 7, and Chuck, 5.

Melvin H. Vaughn, '51geol, has joined Monsanto Chemical Company's Lion Oil Company division as a senior geologist in the southwestern exploration region at Midland, Texas. He formerly was with Kerr McGee Oil Industries, Oklahoma City.

William C. Majors, '51bus, is an accountant with Pan American Petroleum Corporation in Oklahoma City. He is highly active in Masonic activities.

James L. Layton, '51eng, has been transferred from Los Angeles to San Francisco as regional manager of transportation for Alco Products, Inc.

George W. Price, '51eng, has recently accepted employment as a geologist for Jake L. Hamon, independent oil producer in Dallas, Texas. Price had formerly spent seven years with Sohio Petroleum Company, and three years with the U.S. Geological Survey. Price and his wife, Marilyn, '52soc.wk, have three children, Wayne, 11, Steve, 7, and Karen, 4.

BIRTH: James W. Smith, '51bus, and his wife, Susan, are the parents of a girl, Candace Louise, born May 8. Smith is district sales manager for American Steel Foundries. The Smiths reside in Scarsdale, New York.

1952

Capt. Frederick D. Whiting, '52bus, completed the regular course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. The 31-year-old officer has been assigned to the Southern European Task Force in Italy, and will depart after completing the Army helicopter pilot training course at Fort Wolters, Texas.

Charles D. Ablard, '52bus, '54Law in private law practice in Washington, D.C., is the author of the article "Ex Parte Contracts with Federal Administration Agencies" which appeared in the May issue of the American Bar Association Journal, a monthly magazine published in Chicago. During the past year, Ablard has served as special counsel to the American Bar Association's special committee on legal services and procedure. He is also past-president of the O.U. Alumni Club of Washington, D.C.

Oliver F. Guinn, '52bus, '53m.bus, has been appointed assistant professor of economics at Washburn University of Topeka, Kansas. Guinn recently received his doctor's degree from the University of Texas. Since 1958 he has taught economics at West Texas State College, Canyon.

William H. McPherson, '52Law, former attorney with the Phillips Petroleum Company, has recently become associated with the Oklahoma City law firm of Fuller, Smith, Mosburg and Davis.

BIRTH: Martin L. Tanzer, '52pharm, and Mrs. Tanzer (Peggy Hollis '51journal) are the parents of a son, Bradley Craig, born April 3.

1953-54

James C. Daugherty, '53Law, completed the associate officer career course at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. Daugherty is a captain in the National Guard, serving with the 180th Infantry's company B, Okemah. He is an attorney with Sandlin & Daugherty in Holdenville.

Bill G. Fowler, '54ba, is pastor of the Riverside Baptist Church in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Dr. Harry Merigis, '54d.ed, has been named director of the School of Elementary and Junior High School Teaching for Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Illinois. He was formerly director of the laboratory school at that institution.

John Watson, '54bs, '59ms, received his M.S. in geology from the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California. He is a native of Hollywood, California.

BIRTH: Charles Richard Andes, '54bus, '57m. bus, and his wife (Joyce Davidson, '52-'55) are the parents of a son, Richard Charles, born April 16 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Paul E. Clark, '53geol, and Mrs. Clark are the parents of a son born May 26 in Norman.

1955

Jason H. Cain, Jr., '55bus, recently completed the officer career course at the Transportation School, Fort Eustis, Virginia. Cain is a captain in the national guard and is regularly employed as general manager of Ewing's Department Store, Madill.

Dr. J. R. Betson, Jr., '55med, recently authored two scientific articles which appeared in medical journals. One article appeared in the American Surgeon while the other was used in the Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology. Dr. Betson lives in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

William Eugene Crews, '55ba, is assistant rector of Episcopal Church of the Holy Faith, Santa Fe, New Mexico. For the past two years Crews has been associate secretary of the National Student Christian Federation, New York City, working with graduate students in the professions.

BIRTH: Louis B. Isaacson, Jr., '55bus, and Mrs. Isaacson, are the parents of a son born May 13 in Norman.

1956

J. O. Gammill, '56bus, and Mrs. Norma Jean Gammill, '54ed, are now living in La Puente, California, where Gammill is attending the American Savings and Loan Institute School in Los Angeles. He is assistant secretary for Republic Federal Savings and Loan Association in Los Angeles. The couple has three children, John, 5, Juliana, 3, and Susan, 1.

John H. Haynes, '56eng, has received his M.S. in civil engineering from Purdue University. He is presently employed as soils engineer with the Ohio Department of Highways, Columbus, Ohio.

MARRIAGE: Delores Marie Crosthwait and Kenneth E. Mitchell, '56bus, were married May 13 in the Southminster Presbyterian Church, Oklahoma City. The couple now resides in Oklahoma City.

BIRTHS: Barney M. Paris, Jr., '56bus, and Mrs. Paris are the parents of a daughter, Cynthia Eliza-

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE
ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT
RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue
is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in
Bizzell Memorial Library

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .O6S6 in beth, born December 7. They have another daughter, Donna Katherine, 2. Paris is a district sales representative for Continental Oil Company in Houston, Texas.
Bizzell Memorial Library

Lynn Donald Foreman, '55bus, and Mrs. Foreman (Barbara Brendle, '56ed) are the parents of a son born May 13 in Norman.

Phil Albertson and Mrs. Albertson (Mona Griffin, '56pharm) are the parents of a daughter, Amy Louise, born April 7 in Perry. Albertson is a production engineer for Charles Machine Works in Perry.

1957

Wendell E. McCarty, '57ba, was recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army in Germany, while serving with the 15th chemical group. The new officer participated in April Shower, a command post exercise in Germany, held last June. Lieutenant McCarty is personnel supervisor in the chemical group's headquarter detachment, of the Seventh Army, which is regularly located in Mannheim, Germany. He entered the Army in 1957. His wife, Jean, is with him in Germany.

Roy Gant, '57eng, and Mrs. Gant (Cristina Nagel, '58) are now living in Houston, Texas, where Gant is a compressor engineer for the Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company. They have two daughters, Lesley Gayle, 3, and Mary Cheryl, 1½.

William R. Martin, '57ma, a native of Ardmore, has been named instructor in political science in the University of Cincinnati's McMicken College of Arts and Sciences. Martin, a doctoral candidate and previously a graduate assistant at O.U., has his bachelor's degree from Princeton University, and has done work at the Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva, Switzerland. He has attended Lund University, Sweden, and has contributed to European publications. Martin has been teaching American government at Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas. He is a member of the American and Oklahoma Political Science Associations.

BIRTHS: Don Alexander, '57eng, and Mrs. Alexander are the parents of a son born June 1 in Norman.

Gilbert Denison, '57eng, '58m.eng, and Mrs. Denison are the parents of a daughter born June 9 in Norman.

1958

Robert L. Hays, '58ed, completed two weeks of annual active duty training at Fort Carson, Colorado. He is a specialist-fourth with the National Guard, serving as parts clerk in service battery of the 157th artillery, an Army Guard unit in Fort Morgan, Colorado. He is regularly employed as a teacher at Brush, Colorado, High School.

Dr. Wayman J. Thompson, Jr., '58bs, '60med, is now interning in Highland-Alameda County Hospital in Oakland, California. His parents are also graduates of the University; they are Dr. Wayman J. Thompson, Sr., '27bs, '29med, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Thompson (Ruth Vought, '31ba). Their daughter, Mary, '60bs, and her husband, Rowland Denman, '58ba, reside in Oklahoma City.

Army Private Frank E. Outhier, '56-'58, attended the five-week integrated accounting course at the Finance School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Outhier completed basic training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He graduated from David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tennessee.

Edmund C. Root, '58eng, is working for McDonnell Aircraft Corporation, St. Louis, Missouri, as a test engineer on Project Mercury. Mr. and Mrs. Root, Berkeley, Missouri, have a daughter, Kathy.

M. Charles Gilbert, '58bs, '61ms, is currently working toward his doctor's in geology at the University of California, Los Angeles, on a National Science Foundation Fellowship. His wife (Mary Carol Leonard, '58fa) is working in the main library at U.C.L.A.

BIRTH: Byron B. Searcy, '58bus, and Mrs. Searcy (Lynn Overlees, '59) are the parents of a son, Cole, born January 16. Searcy is an independent real estate appraiser in Fort Worth, Texas.

1959

Army 2nd Lt. Monte D. Witte, Dallas, has completed the eight-week officer orientation course at the Chemical Corps School, Fort McClellan, Alabama. Before entering the Army, Lieutenant Witte was employed as a chemical engineer for Proctor and Gamble in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Robert W. Dupuich, '59ed, is now teaching in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Richard A. Silver, '59m.ed, is counselor at Highland High School, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and has also been teaching mathematics.

Leon M. Magill, '59eng, was recently employed as an associate engineer in the microwave tube research engineering department of Sperry Gyroscope Company, Great Neck, New York. Magill received his master's in engineering from Columbia University and prior to joining Sperry was a teaching assistant at Columbia.

Michael E. Lord, '59eng, has received his M.S. from the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California. Lord majored in aeronautics at Caltech. He is a native of Fort Worth, Texas.

Second Lt. John V. Melcher, '59geol, recently participated in Army training tests in Korea with the 1st Cavalry Division's 82nd artillery. The tests were conducted under realistic combat conditions. The 1st Cavalry is the only U.S. division presently manning a front-line position in Korea. Lieutenant Melcher is a field observer in the artillery's battery A. He entered the Army in 1959.

MARRIAGE: Carol Lynn Conley, '59bus, Norman, and Theodore William Thomas, Winfield, Missouri, were married May 20 at McFarlin Methodist Church, Norman. Their home is in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

BIRTHS: James E. Irvin, '59eng, '60bs, and Mrs. Irvin, Norman, are the parents of a son born May 17.

Dan L. Tucker, '59eng, and Mrs. Tucker are the parents of a daughter born May 24 in Norman. Verlan W. Harrell, '59geol, and Mrs. Harrell are the parents of a daughter born May 26 in Norman.

1960

John P. Burns, '60geol, has been employed by the Rogers Geophysical Company as a trainee computer. He has been working on a survey crew in Thomasville, Alabama. Burns recently completed six months duty in the Army. His home is in Altus.

Second Lt. Carroll T. Sciance, '60eng, completed the eight-week field artillery officer orientation course at the artillery and missile school, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. The school is designed for young officers, and trains them in communications, artillery transport, tactics and target acquisition.

Ensign George N. Keyser, '60bs, is on leave of absence from Southwestern Bell Telephone Company while he serves as C.I.C. officer aboard the U.S.S. Preston. He and his wife (Doris Mounts, '59ba) have one daughter, Georgann Collette.

Ray A. Howell, '60eng, has been transferred from the Corps of Engineers' Ballistic Missile construction office at Altus A.F.B., to Tinker A.F.B., Oklahoma City.

MARRIAGES: Richard R. Lembcke, '60eng, and Caroline Schmidt, Schulenberg, Texas, were married May 27 in St. Mary's Catholic Church, High Hill, Texas. They reside in Abbeville, Louisiana, where Lembcke is working for Union Oil of California.

John T. Lembcke, '60eng, and Loretta Schmidt, Schulenberg, Texas, were married January 28 in Saint Ambrose Catholic Church, Houston, Texas. Lembcke is now working for Baker Oil & Tool in Houston.

Sheridan Brandon, '60ed, Lawton, and Ernest M. Drowatsky, '61bs, Wichita, Kansas, were married May 20 at Centenary Methodist Church, Lawton. The couple now reside in Wichita. Drowatsky was a member of the O.U. swimming team and was named to the N.C.A.A. All-America swim team.

Patricia Flood, '60journ, and Michael W. Brown were married June 11 in Nobel Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, Ardmore. The couple is residing in St. Louis, Missouri, where he is a senior in Washington University School of Medicine.

1961

Second Lt. Larry G. Padget, '61ed, completed the officer orientation course at the Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Virginia.

Louis F. Goza, '61bus, Camden, Arkansas, was the 1961 winner of the Julian J. Rothbaum Award, which is presented annually to the outstanding senior majoring in petroleum land management at O.U. Rothbaum, '36ba, '38Law, is a Tulsa oilman and member of the O.U. Board of Regents.

Second Lt. John R. Ward, '61ed, completed the eight-week officer orientation course under the Reserve Forces Act program at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Lieutenant Ward received instruction in the treatment of battle injuries, supply, administration and preventive medicine techniques used to detect health hazards.

Donald Craig Kirkpatrick, '57-'61, has been employed by the University of California's Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory. He is formerly of Norman and is a veteran of the Air Force. He is married and has two daughters.

Merrily Adams, '61fa, won the Ellsworth Dugan award as outstanding member of Mu Phi Epsilon, O.U. honorary music sorority, at the May 26 annual School of Music student-alumni-faculty awards banquet.

Dale B. Sherrod, '61med, Oklahoma City, was awarded the Onis George Hazel memorial award at the O.U. School of Medicine spring commencement. Sherrod, former president of his senior class, received the annual award for "most nearly approaching the ideal doctor-patient relationship." He is serving his internship at Presbyterian Hospital, Denver, Colorado.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE
ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue
is available at call
number LH 1 .06S6 in
Bizzell Memorial Library