

Sooner

MAGAZINE

Volume 34 Number 5 January, 1962

Window in the Future

3

Research is the key to man's progress in this age of science. While working toward this primary goal, scientists have brought $3½ million in contracts to the O.U. Research Institute and many other benefits to Oklahoma and the Southwest.

Has America Neglected Her Creative Minority?

7

When education graduates go out into the classrooms, they already have served a semester's apprenticeship in the College of Education's program for "practice teachers."

A Final Test of Student-Teachers

10

Arnold Toynbee, renowned British historian, has spent the last year as a visiting professor in this country. In this article written exclusively for alumni magazines, he questions America's use of her human resources.

How Tall Is a Giant?

13

This month the nation got a closer look at the new Majority Leader of the House of Representatives and learned what people of Oklahoma's third district have known all along: Carl Albert, '31ba, is a remarkable man.

also in this issue

Sooner Scene . . . Page 2
Cobean Cartoon . . . Page 15
Conversation Piece . . . Page 15
Roll Call . . . Page 16
New Books . . . Page 23
Backlog . . . Page 24

the cover

There is something a bit awesome about a research laboratory with its rows of mysteriously labeled bottles and complex scientific apparatus. The scientists who inhabit these labs are something special, too, as might be expected of men with their own Window in the Future (page 3).

PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA ASSOCIATION

Editor: Carol J. Robinson Executive Editor: R. Boyd Gunning Editorial Assistants: Connie Ruggles, Bob Carey, Joe Davis

Sooner Magazine is published monthly (except June and August) by the University of Oklahoma Association, Union Building, Norman, Oklahoma. Second-class postage paid at Norman, Oklahoma. Subscription $2.00 per year (does not include Alumni dues). Single copies 25 cents. Opinions expressed are those of the editor and do not necessarily represent official action of the Alumni Executive Board. Member of American Alumni Council.