

Sooner

MAGAZINE

Volume 35 Number 4 December, 1962

Always One Familiar Face

3

"To me the names University of Oklahoma and Kraettli have always been synonymous," one regent commented when the veteran University secretary announced his partial retirement, and thousands of alumni would echo this sentiment.

Lights On for Study

7

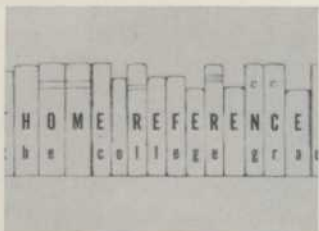

Many persons were certain that compulsory study hall for freshmen men could never be enforced, but they reckoned without unexpected support from the group most directly involved—the freshmen men themselves.

Disciple of a Dying Art

9

In the time necessary to become a physician, a lawyer or a Ph.D, yet some men, like O.U.'s Norman Alexandre, are still drawn to this disappearing art.

A Basic Home Reference Library

12

Setting up your own home library and need some advice? The U.C.L.A. library science dean offers 25 basic volumes and his reasons for selecting them in this article for alumni magazines. Savoie Lottinville has added 25 more for the Oklahoma family.

also in this issue

Sooner Scene . . . Page 2
Cobean Cartoon . . . Page 15
Conversation Piece . . . Page 15
Roll Call . . . Page 16
Backlog . . . Page 24

the cover

O.U.'s glassblower spends most of his time making scientific laboratory apparatus for the chemistry and physics departments, but for his own enjoyment he turns to the more artistic ornamental articles, such as this glass sailing ship. See story on page 9.

PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA ASSOCIATION

Editor: Carol J. Burr

Executive Editor: R. Boyd Gunning

Roll Call Editor: Joe Davis

Sooner Magazine is published monthly (except June and August) by the University of Oklahoma Association, Union Building, Norman, Oklahoma. Second-class postage paid at Norman, Oklahoma. Subscription $2.00 per year (does not include Alumni dues). Single copies 25 cents. Opinions expressed are those of the editor and do not necessarily represent official action of the Alumni Executive Board. Member of American Alumni Council.