

Sooner

MAGAZINE

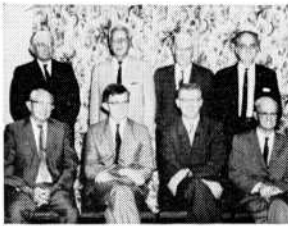

Volume 36 Number 10 July-August, 1964

A Coach for All Seasons

6

A former Sooner infielder, now president of the OU Board of Regents, remembers his college baseball coach, the redoubtable Jap Haskell, former athlete, coach and athletic director here for more than two decades and one of the tradition builders of Oklahoma athletics.

The KC in OU

8

Three score and ten years after its formation, the Kingfisher College Board of Trustees holds its final meeting. Nostalgia tinges the occasion at which its records and property are given to OU, which will continue to administer the Kingfisher philosophy of religion program.

Poverty and the Oklahoma Indian

10

Leslie Towle, area director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, discusses the perplexities and complexities of poverty among Indians in our state and offers solutions, one of which is a program directed by the University's Southwest Center for Human Relations Studies.

A Report on Public Law 88-204

16

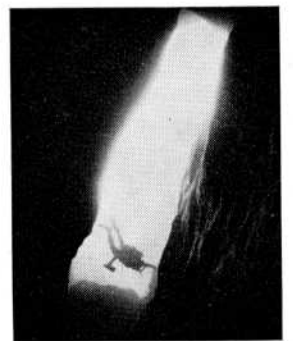

A new act important to Oklahoma and to the University, the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963, passed by the 88th Congress and signed into law by President Johnson, is explained by Ed Edmondson, a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from Oklahoma's Second District.

also in this issue

Retiring Professors . . . Page 14
Summertime . . . Page 18
Roll Call . . . Page 20

the cover

Light from an opening in the earth's crust silhouettes Merlin Dobry, '58ba, as he drops into the blackness of Devil's Hole, a hidden lake, massive and mysterious, which lies beneath Death Valley. For a report on the expedition of which Dobry was a member, see Deep Dive in Death Valley, page 2.

Editor: Paul V. Galloway
Executive Editor: R. Boyd Gunning
Art Director: John Yack
Associate Editor: Charles Long
Roll Call Editor: Donni Karr

PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA ASSOCIATION

Sooner Magazine is published monthly (except June and August) by the University of Oklahoma Association, Union Building, Norman, Oklahoma. Second-class postage paid at Norman, Oklahoma. Subscription $2.00 per year (does not include Alumni dues), Single copies 25 cents. Opinions expressed are those of the editor and do not necessarily represent official action of the Alumni Executive Board. Member of American Alumni Council.