Portland Encore . . .

PORTLAND HAS A SPECIAL EVENT PLANNED FOR AN ENCORE. You can sign up for a bus trip up the Columbia River, a ride on a real sternwheeler and an Indian Salmon Bake — no organ music, just beautiful scenery, delicious food and lots of fresh air.

Registration forms for Convention '88 and reservations at the Red Lion Lloyd Center Hotel are inside the back cover of this issue.

We cordially invite you to fill one out and join us for a fun-filled fling in July.

PUGET SOUND invites you to Tacoma and Seattle by air-conditioned, round-trip bus.

Maps will be provided for those who drive their own vehicles.

Hear Lyn Larsen
at the 4/48 Wurlitzer

installed in the newly completed Wilcox residence, where the living room seats 400 and the relay has been superseded by a Wilcox-Devtronix Organ Control System. Dress casually and bring a light wrap for protection against breezes from the water, as box lunches will be served on the Deck.

Dinner will be served in the Spanish Ballroom of the historic 1924 Olympic Four Seasons Hotel, recently given a lavish $55 million restoration. Expected arrival at the Portland Red Lion is 11 p.m.

Enjoy the refinements and additions to the now 4/21 original Wurlitzer in the restored 3,000-seat Seattle Paramount.

We take special pride in presenting Olympia organist Andy Crow in a memorable afternoon concert.

It is requested that no taping be allowed during either performance, but photographing is welcome at all three distinctive locations.

TOTAL COST:
$70 Per Person
*(Please deduct $17.00
if you will be traveling by automobile).*

Registration Limited to 400
